

Local man is director of the year

One of Georgetown's residents has been named "Director of the Year" at the annual meeting of the Air Cadet League of Canada, Ontario Provincial Committee, held Nov. 3 and 4 in Toronto.

Rod MacDonald C.D., Chairman of the Ontario Provincial Committee for the Central Ontario Region, was selected from among 50 other directors for this honor.

Harold Fowler of Calgary, the National President of the Air Cadet League of Canada, presented the award to Mr. MacDonald.

Mr. MacDonald became a director for the Ontario Provincial Committee in 1984.

Mr. MacDonald was the founder and first commanding officer of Georgetown's 756 Royal Canadian Air Cadet Squadron. He has served on various selection boards for the senior awards courses for deserving cadets.

He has served in both the RCAF and the RAF in Europe, Britain and the far east. He is currently a Charter Member of Wing 400 of the Royal Canadian Air Force Association.

Halton Board of Education Director Bob Williams presented Robert Little Public School teacher June Doberthien with a gold pin in recognition of her 39 years with the board at the recent recognition ceremony. Ms. Doberthien is the only Halton teacher who has given more than 35 years service. (Herald photo)

The Halton Board of Education recently held a recognition ceremony at Lester B. Pearson High School in Burlington to honor those teachers who have been with the board for 20, 25, 30 and 35 years. Those honored from North Halton schools are: first row, left to right, Rosemary Black - Robert Little P.S. (30 years); Kay Morrison - Stewarttown Middle School (30 years); June Doberthien - Robert Little P.S.; middle row, Ed Leatherland - MacKenzie-Smith Middle School (25 years); Lenora Vickery - Robert Little P.S. (25 years); Gary Bateman - Brookville P.S. (25 years); Helen O'Drowsky - Robert Little P.S.; back row, Ed Riley - Robert Baldwin P.S. (25 years); Jack Anderson - W.I. Dick P.S. (25 years) and Ena Gibson - MacKenzie-Smith P.S. (25 years). Photo submitted

Group studies winterizing the garden

By ELAINE VANDERBURG
Herald Special

The topic of the Oct. 18 meeting of the Horticultural Society was winterizing your gardens. We extend our gratitude to Zena Calantoni of Wheel and Cullen Gardens for her informative presentation on this topic.

The society extends a sincere thank you to Glenda Benton who judged the pumpkin pie baking contest - winners were: First prize - Helen Pinkney; second prize - Elaine Vanderburg; third prize - Madge Whitfield.

The next meeting will be held Thursday, Nov. 16, 8 p.m. at Knox Presbyterian Church, Main St., Georgetown.

Plans for the Christmas season are under way. Our Dec. meeting will be a potluck dinner, entertainment and carol singing on Wednesday, Dec. 6 at 6:30 p.m., same location. Also there will be a mini flower show of Christmas arrangements in the style of mantlepieces or door and wall hangings.

The society welcomes new members at any time. If you are interested in finding out how, please contact Elaine Vanderburg at 877-6288 or Madge Whitfield at 877-4055 or come to the meeting.
