Sunny Acres Farms major midgets 1989-90 regular season unbeaten streak in Tri-County Hockey League play was snapped Saturday as Flamboro edged Georgetown 6-5 on a disputed goal, in a game played in Flamboro.

The Georgetown squad shook off the disappointing loss, however, in a Sunday afternoon home encounter, by doubling Richmond Hill-Vaughan 4-2 in a game played at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

The split of the weekend games runs the Sunny Acres league record to a sparkling 10-1-1. According to Sunny Acres Farms manager Wayne Pries, Flamboro's sixth and eventual winning goal, did not cross the goal line but the game referee was out of position and didn't have a good view of the crease area.

The goal was allowed, however and Sunny Acres 10-game unbeaten run came to an end.

Sunny Acres also had other frustrations in the game as well, as they outshot Flamboro 43-21, but failed to cash in on a number of scoring opportunities.

Flamboro obviously came to play Saturday and yet another slow Sunny Acres start, had Georgetown behind 3-1 after the first period.

Sunny Acres rallied in the second period and matched Flamboro's two goals with a pair of their own, to trail 5-3 heading into the final period of play.

A pair of Georgetown markers notched the game at 5-5 with less than five minutes to play.

Just 15 seconds after the fifth Sunny Acres goal, however, Flamboro was credited with the disputed counter and Georgetown was saddled with the first loss of the season.

Trevor Elinesky scored twice for Georgetown with singles going to Rob Boyle, Gord Burke and Sean Guistini.

Guistini scored his goal on a penalty shot to knot the game at 5-5.

Guistini, Burke, Mark Lorito, Eric Long and Rich Bond had assists for Georgetown.

Paul St. Pierre went the distance in the Georgetown nets.

Saturday afternoon at home against Richmond Hill-Vaughan, Sunny Acres were again slow off the mark, but surged in the final period to claim the 4-2 win.

Georgetown led 1-0 after the first period but the game was knotted 1-1 heading into the final frame.

Three Georgetown goals with but a single reply from the visitors sealed Richmond Hill-Vaughan's fate.

Trevor Elinesky played another strong game for Sunny Acres, scoring once and collecting two assists.

Brad Amato, Brad Tutt and Mark Lorito were the other Georgetown marksmen.

Tutt and Rob Lang picked up assists for Georgetown.

Goaltender Peter Downs earned the win.

Sunny Acres paid a return visit to Richmond Hill-Vaughan yesterday (Tuesday) - at press time, the score was not available.

Sunday, 4 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, Sunny Acres plays host to Flamboro and will attempt to avenge their lone loss of the season.

MARK LORITO, of the Sunny Acres Farms major midgets, banks a shot off the post in Sunday's game against Richmond Hill-Vaughan, at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena. Despite losing their first game of the 1989-90 season to Flamboro, on Saturday, Sunny

Select team wins title

Georgetown's Bantam Girls Select Volleyball Club began its quest for a second Ontario crown, successfully on the weekend. The local squad won the opening Ontario Volleyball Association Provincial Cup in Scarborough on Saturday.

Georgetown experimented with many different player combinations for a lacklustre performance in pool play.

The Selects lost 15-11, 16-14 to the powerful Hamilton Seekers and then split 13-15, 15-9 with Scarborough Titans and 12-15 and 15-10 to Peel Spirit.

This left the local squad with a 2-4 pool record and fourth place.

In the semi-finals in the afternoon Georgetown met the first place Seekers and surprised everyone with a seemingly easy sweep (15-8, 15-8).

Setters Stacey Collarossi and Jenn Symmes set up hitters Tanya McMaster, Marci McInnes, Dione Benito and Amy Kerslake to earn the berth into the championship match.

In the finals against Scarborough, Georgetown continued its fine play with a 15-9, 15-8 sweep for the gold medals.

The balance of the team consists of Kim Wiltshire, Liz Baynes, Manda Melvin, Angela Hrkac, Lisa Fitzpatrick, Kelly Campbell and Andrea Lebnanister.

The Selects are coached by Jim Atkinson and Brian Cosgrove.
