League executive lays down the law

MONDAY HALTON LEAGUE

A little controversy over player Luke Heikamp began the week. Heikamp was, and is, a signed O'Tooles I player and was rejected by his teammates owing to lack of appearances.

Time Out I picked him up, with permission from the president, and Heikamp played. The executive overruled the decision as the official signing date had passed. Heikamp is returned to O'Tooles as a result. Heikamp's replacement, Jewett Fraser, played both games taking place against each other's "new" teams. As both players were involved in points wins the points have been removed, and cancel each other out.

However, league business continues with Time Out I still in front, and by only three points, ahead of McGibbon I. Some thirty odd points behind come O'Tooles II and Copper Kettle I. It is a little tighter at the top this season and that is where the main interest surely lies. This is not to say that the teams will not be trying, far from it, there are rivalries abound in the standings.

Copper Kettle II were not as much of a challenge to Time Out I as the previous week yet the match was not a walk over in the slightest. Some good games took place and Brian Hicks and Ged Williams dropped their singles to Roger Newman and Rod Presswood for Kettle's two points.

Pete Pickering shot a 180 and 140 with Ron Scarlett 140 and 135. Ged Williams finished a fine 119 for individual plays of the match. McGibbon I took Kaspers by the same score. The Kasper points came from Roger Armstrong, 140, over Dan Charles and Don Rice over Dave Nicholson. Wyman Somers replied with 139 and 140.

O'Tooles II are on a roll and rolled over McGibbon II by 11-3. The ladies took three singles and looked as though they were going to make a closer match at this juncture.

Pat Pickering, Darlene Wheeler and June Norton won their games over Ed Kouyoumjian, Stan Mathews and Ron Duval. The lads came back to seal the match, and Jeff Richardson scored 135.

O'Tooles I were shorthanded against Copper Kettle I and paid the piper in the end, going down 6-8, losing two doubles and both team games with the "dummy". Ken Baker came in with 140, 140 and Ian Cooper with 133.

WEDNESDAY INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

First division leaders, Snowjacks Hustlers, remain at the top. A 6-1 win over Ensigns assured the position. The Beaumont squad were in great form with Beau's three starts and closes and Rod's scoring coupled with two starts and a finish. Ron Scarlett shot 140. Harry Bottoms shot 147 and 118 in reply and Joe Keating also shot well.

Second place Gasketman Cutters dropped two points further behind in winning 4-3 over Exports. Mark and Erwin See, Jeff Richardson and Rick Harden each scored 140. Westenders also won 4-3, High Rollers being the victims. Eric Fuller and Ray Ackroyd had five scores over the ton between them and Terry Hancock had starts of 60 and 92.

Steeptock and Bulldogs also had a 4-3 score with 'Rock as winners. Paul Kirby had 140 and 100 and Gary Rodda helped himself to 140.

Second division leaders, Panthers, lost for the third week in succession yet still lead. They lost 2-5 to newcomers Outlaws, who are beginning to settle. Ross Hope scored 120, Mike Hope scored 100 and Paul Kavanagh scored 126 to close and had four starts.
