

Police Beat

Tapes stolen

About $160 worth of cassette tapes were stolen from an unlocked Chevette parked in the driveway of a Raylawn Crescent home in Georgetown sometime between 1 a.m. and 6 a.m. Nov. 26. Police say 16 cassettes and a spare ignition key was stolen.

Bottle thrown

Someone threw a beer bottle through the front window of a house on Kingham Road in Acton sometime between 1 a.m. and 9:30 a.m. Nov. 25. Damage is estimated at $40.

Ornaments stolen

A hood ornament was stolen from a Chrysler Dynasty parked in a driveway on Acton Boulevard sometime between Nov. 17-18. Damage is estimated at $100.

A hood ornament was also stolen from a 1987 Mercedes parked on Gardiner Drive in Georgetown, sometime between midnight and 9 a.m. Nov. 26. Police say there was no damage to the hood of the car because the thief knew how to unscrew the ornament. The emblem was worth $60.

Door scratched

Someone scratched the passenger side door of a 1979 Mercury Marquis parked in a parking lot at Willow and Church Streets in Acton between 8 p.m. and 9 p.m. Nov. 23. Police estimate the damage at under $1,000.

Mischief charge

A 19-year-old Acton man was arrested and charged with mischief following a dispute at a Mowbray Place home in Acton at 3:20 a.m. Nov. 24. Police say the accused was asked to leave the home but refused. He was then thrown out of the house, according to police. The accused then punched in a window beside the front door and became out of control, according to police. The man was charged with mischief causing under $1,000 damage. He will appear in court Jan. 8.

Shoplifting charge

A 30-year-old Acton woman was charged with shoplifting under $1,000 after an incident at Flight Line Leather store on Mill Street in Acton at 1 p.m. Nov. 26. Police say a female set off the security alarm when she left the store. She refused to re-enter the store when confronted by an employee and a store employee then followed her to her home. Police charged the woman with theft of a $125 plaid pair of pants. She will appear in court Jan. 8.

Charge laid

A charge of careless driving was laid following a two-car collision on Guelph Street in Acton at 9:10 a.m. Nov. 24. Police say a 1989 Chrysler, driven by an 18-year-old Acton man, and a 1987 Chevrolet, driven by a 37-year-old Acton woman, were travelling westbound on Guelph Street. The Chevrolet stopped for eastbound traffic to turn left into a driveway and was then struck from behind by the Chrysler, police say. Damage to the Chrysler was moderate but damage to the Chevrolet was severe.

Car and truck collide

Both these vehicles were severely damaged following an accident on the Ninth Line at Sideroad 5 in Halton Hills Monday afternoon. No further details were available at press time. (Herald photo)

Weather conditions cause three-car collision

No charges were laid following a three-car collision at Trafalgar Road and Sideroad 27 at 8 a.m. Nov. 21. Police say three vehicles, a 1978 Oldsmobile driven by a 25-year-old Waterloo man, a 1984 vehicle, driven by a 31-year-old Erin Township woman, and a 1987 Plymouth, driven by a 38-year-old Hillsburgh woman, were travelling southbound on Trafalgar Road when the incident happened.

The 1984 vehicle and the Plymouth were stopped but the Oldsmobile skidded on snow into the back of the 1984 vehicle, pushing it into the Plymouth. No charges were laid due to weather conditions.

Damage to the Oldsmobile was severe but the other two vehicles received light damage.
