St. John's holds advent service

St. John's United Church of Georgetown and Glen Williams will light their first Advent candle at their regular service on Dec. 3, 9:30 a.m. in the Glen and 11 a.m. in Georgetown. At 9 a.m. in Georgetown the monthly communion service will be received.

A special Advent program on Dec. 3 has also been planned from 12:30 p.m. to 2:30 p.m. in Georgetown. There will be a simple meal, relaxing conversation and a rediscovery of the Christmas story through songs, stories, films and the creation of Jesse tree ornaments.

White Gift services will be observed at both worships centres on Dec. 10. Also on Dec. 10, at Georgetown at 7:30 p.m. a Blue Service will be held. This service is especially for those finding Christmas difficult because of unemployment, illness, death of a family member or close friend or other problems.

On Dec. 13, the third Advent

Sunday, the Glen morning service will be cancelled. Instead, the annual Glen Candlelight Service will be held at 7:30 p.m.

On Christmas Sunday, Dec. 24 the regular morning services will be held with special music and worship. In the evening a special family service will take place in the Georgetown sanctuary at 7 p.m. and at 11 p.m. there will be a Christmas Eve Communion service.
