Farmer honored

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

NORVAL-George Bird of RR2 Georgetown was nominated Farmer of the Year on Nov. 25, at the Acton Legion. Around 240 people attended the roast beef dinner and dance. Following the dinner, president of the Halton Federation of Agriculture, Harry Brander, RR2 Norval, introduced the Farmer of the Year and presented the plaque from the Segsworth Family.

A bouquet of roses was presented to George's wife Verna by Linda Cullingham from the Halton Federation of Agriculture and the Agriculture Advisory Committee. MPP Walt Elliot presented a plaque on behalf of Premier David Peterson and MP Garth Turner read a letter from Prime Minister Brian Mulroney. A plaque will be presented at the Region of Halton meeting in January by chairman Peter Pomeroy. George and Verna's family of daughter Marilyn, and three sons, Charles, David and Ron were introduced.
