

Legion holds literary, poster contest

By JEAN NAREY
 Legion Youth Education Chairman
 The Awards Night for the Legion Literary and Poster Contests was very successful in that we had a full complement of enthusiastic students and equally enthusiastic and supportive parents, teachers and principals. It was enough to warm the cockles of any organizer's heart.
 The guest of honor, Muriel Peck, Zone Commander of the Ladies Auxiliary - a quiet lady who really wanted just to sit and watch - our own Ladies Auxiliary President Marjorie Tutty and her First Vice-President Sheila Hicks, together with Branch Secretary Flo Carswell did a beautiful job of presenting the students with their monetary prizes and certificates. Thank you ladies - you are sovereign!

 My grateful thanks also go to Jean Reid and Audrey Martin who prepared and supervised the delightful after-awards snack.

Paul Yates manipulated the microphone and tape recorder with admirable dexterity and our Color Party put the frosting on the cake.
 The branch, along with myself, offer our sincere thanks to Joan Brown, without whose guidance this whole function would not have taken place.

Auxiliary bazaar a success

By FLO CARSWELL
 Legion Auxiliary
 Our bazaar on Saturday was a great success. Final figures and the list of winners is not available yet but will be published next week or possibly the weekend paper.
 Results of Zone Bowling in Oakville, also on Saturday, first Port Credit, second Oakville "C", third Oakville "A" and fourth Georgetown. Our teammates were Marion Carney, Jean Foster, Nikki Seifried, Lynda Carney, Leanne Hall and Anne Nicholson.

 Help is still required for the December banquets, please contact the following if you can help:
 Dec. 1 and 8 Trudy Paul and Flo Carswell, 877-4132; Dec. 2 Sheila Hicks 877-4713 and Monica Southon 873-2636, Dec. 16 Marj Tutty 877-0618 and Cathy Watson 877-1986.

Ivory music

Mary Ann Brown of Limehouse is one of the 80 music students trained by local music teacher Haydn Evans, who performed in one of two recitals held at the St. John's United Church in Georgetown Sunday. Mary Ann is seen here performing "Spooks." One of Mr. Evans' students, 16-year-old Ken Wong will be performing at the church this Sunday to achieve an associateship of the Royal Conservatory in Toronto. The performance is open to the public and begins at 7 p.m. (Herald photo)
