Monday night, Century 21 Minor Atoms drove for an hour in the rain to take on the powerful Stoney Creek squad.

Just 36 seconds into the game a wicked wrist shot zipped past goalie Kevin Humeniski and it appeared the rout was on.

From that moment on Kevin gave a goaltending clinic as he challenged the shooters, played the angles, covered the rebounds and made one miraculous save after another. He had to play well as Stoney Creek fired at least 40 shots at him.

With just four minutes left in the first period Curtis Hoogendam won a faceoff in the opposition's end of the rink and passed back to Michael Crawford.

Mike relayed across to his defence partner Steven Smith. Steven passed back to Curtis who found Brad Kouyoumjian alone in front, and the game was tied.

Just one minute later, Crawford stopped a three on one break and passed up to Brad Davidson.

Brad combined with Allan Rasmussen to send Shane Thompson in all alone. Shane slipped the puck past the "Creek" netminder and the good guys took the lead 2-1.

The second period finished 2-2 but our boys came charging out for the third period and quickly took a two goal lead.

Ricky Clark broke up a rush at his blueline and gave the puck to Shane Thompson who zoomed up the ice like a runaway locomotive. He went around the left defenceman and scored with a low wrist shot to the far side.

Shane's third goal of the night was one he has waited for all season. After Andrew Beavan stopped a Stoney Creek rush along the far boards, Shane grabbed the loose puck and skated to the Stoney Creek blueline, from where he used the slap shot he has been practising for three months.

He sent a missile past the startled "Creek" netminder who by this time had seen enough of our No. 14 for one night.

Perhaps this goal woke up the home team as they stormed back to score four goals in the last 10 minutes.

Hoogendam's late goal on a fine passing play with Thompson and Trevor Rich gave our boys a brief lead at 5-4, but the final result was 6-5 for Stoney Creek.

This loss was nothing to be ashamed of, as everyone gave 100 per cent against a tough team.

Special mention should go to Steven Smith for twice diving across the crease to block shots for Kevin, and the non stop backchecking of Brad Davidson who, along with Thompson, leads this team by example.
