90th birthday

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent
NORVAL-The family of Kate Laidlaw, RR2 Norval, entertained relatives, friends and neighbors on Sunday, Dec. 10 at Norval United Church for her 90th birthday. One hundred and fifty people attended the celebration. Her daughter Jean and her husband John Dunlop of Norval, and sons Bill and his wife Gwen, and Gord and his wife Rosie, both of RR2 Norval, assisted in greeting guests. Nine grandchildren and 13 great grandchildren enjoyed the party. A beautiful red and white carnation centre piece graced the tea table, and was a gift from Norval United Church, where Kate has been a member for over 64 years. The Brampton West Women's Institute presented a blue and white flower arrangement to their longstanding member.

Guests came from Guelph, Toronto and surrounding area.

NORVAL-Norval Women's Institute enjoyed its Christmas meeting at the home of Kay

Wilson Dec. 7.

President Norine Van Leeuwen welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with a reading about "Early Canadian Christmas Customs."

Business of the evening included a report on letters written to the Town of Halton Hills about preserving the Pioneer McNabb Cemetery as a historical site. A donation of $100 is to be sent to the Good Neighbors Fund to help with Christmas baskets.

The roll call "Tell about a Christmas decoration you have made," was answered by 14 members and five guests. At this time the ladies who had attended Halton District Day at Brookville Hall Nov. 19, told about and showed their "Treasures from Trash."

The meeting's collection is to go to the Erland Lee Memorial Fund in memory of Amy Burk. Kay Wilson was in charge of the program.

The Eternal Christmas Story was read by the members interspersed by solos and duets of beautiful Christmas carols sung by Glenn Laidlaw and Doris Sharp, accompanied by the organ by June Fries. Three very talented sisters!

A carol sing-song followed and then Santa came with gifts for all.

A social hour was enjoyed with a Christmas lunch served by the lunch committee assisted by the hostess.

The next meeting will be at the home of Jean May Jan. 4, 1990 at 8 p.m. The program about S.H.A.R.E. Agricultural Foundation will be presented by Melba and Hugh Beatty.

Santa's coming to Branch 120

Santa will be coming to Branch 120 on Thursday, Dec. 14. All the workers have been busy trimming the tree, and putting up decorations, preparing for his visit. The children, and their parents will be entertained by the Brampton Clown Band again this year, and of course there will be gifts from the man with the beard.

The president and the executive will be hosting a levee on New Year's Day, as in the past between 2 and 4 p.m. in the lounge.

The half-time draw for the car club will take place tomorrow night (Thursday, Dec. 14). Please read the rules on your ticket.

CAR CLUB: This week's winners - 485 Tom Ledwidge, 444 D. and P. Chamberlain, 352 Dick Appleyard, 349 Jasper Green, 350 Bob Tost and 113 Gretta Stoddart.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON MEAT DRAW: This week we had a busy afternoon with Gord King and Harry Allen running the turkey shoot and Roy Bradley conducting the regular meat draw. Everybody who took part had a good afternoon, and here are the results: The turkeys - Rod McDonald, Kieth Ewing, Bud Haines, Steve Clayton Jr., and Cliff Glaude won two, way to go Cliff!

Gord King wishes to thank everyone for their support on the turkey shoot. Meat draw - Mr. McCausland, Denny McCartney, Herman Nicholson, Isabel Jack, F. Dean, Janice McKeller, Ian McDonald, Bill Collier, Jean Narey, Rod McDonald, Marg Tutty, Ron Stott. The roast, a ham actually, was won by Lottie Bottoms.

YOUTH AND EDUCATION: The zone judging took place at Oakville last Saturday, no results yet. The photographs of the individual winners at Branch 120, taken by me are available from youth and education chairman Jean Narey.
