Minor Atoms

Century 21 challenged

By DAVE BEAVAN
Herald Special

On Dec. 7 high flying Milton came to town to take on the Century 21 Minor Atoms.

Milton was boasting an eight point lead atop the standings after having lost only once.

Milton has always been tough and in one recent contest they manhandled us 14-1.

Goaltender Kevin Humeniski missed his last regular start so that he would be well-rested for the monsters from Milton. Kevin was more than ready as he gave up only three goals to the Green Machines.

Unfortunately, Milton's netminder held our boys to two goals and led his team to a hard fought 3-2 victory.

Both Georgetown goals were unassisted and were scored by Brad Davidson and Curtis Hoogendam.

On Dec. 14 Georgetown hosted Oakville in a chippy contest which featured 14 minor penalties of which 11 were for either slashing or unsportsmanlike conduct.

This contest looked more like a Saturday night Raiders/Milton game as both teams hacked away at each other for the full 35 minutes.

The dirty play really came to a head when Steven Smith was rammed from behind into the boards and came up seeing stars.

Luckily Steven was alright but incredibly the visiting parents screamed at the referee for calling a penalty. Officiating rep hockey is certainly a thankless job. Just ask anyone who wears the stripes.

As for the game itself, Georgetown came out on the short end 4-2. Steven Smith provided all of the offence for Georgetown as he scored both goals.

The first was set up by Brad Davidson and the second was an unassisted effort from end to end.

We all know about Steven's defensive prowess but when he decides to carry the puck he is a pleasure to watch.

No one would question his speed and his stickhandling can be magical at times. Steven's dad doesn't miss many games but you guessed it! What a night to be at the office Christmas party!

Sunday afternoon our boys travelled to Brampton. This was a strange game and one Georgetown would like to forget.

First the referees were late (half an hour). Then Shane (the tank) Thompson crashed into the post and had to be helped from the ice after a 10 minute delay.

Then, Shane's defence partner Ricky Clark was checked from behind into the end boards and we all held our breath when Ricky didn't move. Luckily Ricky's mother (who is a qualified nurse) was at the game and she supervised the on-ice activities while waiting for the ambulance.

I am happy to report that Ricky was home from the hospital by 8 p.m. sporting a large bruise, but thankfully no breaks. The game loses all importance when you watch a ten-year-old boy being wheeled from the ice on a stretcher. Luckily this episode had a happy ending.

Georgetown lost the game 5-3. Our goals were scored by Andrew Beaver, Brad Kouyoumjian, and Trevor Rich.

Assists went to Brad Davidson, Curtis Hoogendam, Rich, Kouyoumjian and Thompson.
