HOME OF THE WEEK

PLAN NO. 90-1949

INNOVATIVE RANCHER REVOLVES AROUND VAULTED LIVING ROOM

Floor plan 1940 sq. ft.

California stucco, bold hip roof and tiered planters bordering the deeply recessed entry introduce this unique rancher. This three bedroom 1949 square feet home is designed for a lot with the view to the rear.

Multipaned transom windows over the front entry and living room accentuate the vaulted ceiling which stretches through the home. The high soaring ceiling open floor plan and minimal use of hallways creates enhanced spaciousness. Highlighting the entry to the spacious living room is a pair of fluted columns, crowned with a bridging planters shelf. Glass walled fireplace shared with the breakfast room and French doors to the rear patio complete the living room. The dining room, with angled walls and three archway entry is an elegant area for entertaining. The informal area of the home revolves around an island kitchen, breakfast and family room. Connecting the kitchen to the two-car garage is a generous laundry/mudroom, with convenient powder room and plenty of storage space - ideal for coats, boots and sporting equipment. An additional pair of columns between the kitchen and coffered ceiling family room visually zones the two areas.

The master bedroom features a sunny sitting bay, coffered ceiling and French door access to the deck. The sumptuous ensuite boasts a whirlpool spa and dressing room, with walk-in closet and vanity. The two additional bedrooms share a main bathroom.
