

Police Beat

Cover stolen

Halton Regional Police say someone stole a $100 cover off a snowmobile parked outside a Rosemary Road house in Acton sometime during the late afternoon of Dec. 20.

Shoplifting charge

Police charged a 46-year-old Toronto man with shoplifting after someone tried to steal a $44 wallet from the Olde Hide House in Acton Wednesday. A Jan. 22 court date has been scheduled in connection with the incident.

Windows smashed

Someone smashed out the windows and damaged the interior of a 1976 Dodge parked in the area of Highway 25 and Sideroad 17 in Acton causing $1,500 damage sometime between Dec. 15 and Dec. 20, police say.

Tanks stolen

Police say someone stole four oxygen tanks and four acetylene tanks worth a total value of $2,000 from a locked storage area on Sinclair Avenue in Georgetown sometime last weekend. The culprit used an unknown object to cut a pad lock to enter the premises.

Tools stolen

At least two people stole about $5,525 worth of tools from a construction site located in the area of Hall Road and Guelph Street in Georgetown overnight Dec. 13. Police say the culprit used a ladder to climb over a wall surrounding the site. He or she then stole several tools including a jack hammer, a nail drive, a power drill, a wrench and many hand tools.

Tires slashed

Police say someone slashed two tires on a vehicle parked in the parking lot of a Guelph Street plaza in Georgetown causing $150 damage during the evening of Dec. 16.

Cash stolen

Someone stole about $3,182 worth of cash and safety certification books from a gas station located in the area of Queen Street East in Acton overnight Dec. 17. Police say the culprit broke a small hole in a east side window and then reached in to unlock it. The person then used an unknown object to smash the lock on the safe.

Mailbox struck

A 1989 Ford travelling northbound on the Seventh Line near Highway 7 in Halton Hills slid into a ditch and then hit a mailbox. The driver was a 35-year-old Ballinafad woman. The car went out of control during the early evening of Dec. 15. Police laid a charge of careless driving following the incident.

Charge laid

A charge of failure to stop was laid following a two-car collision on Sideroad 5 at the Fifth Line in Halton Hills the afternoon of Dec. 14. A 1981 GMC van driven by a 22-year-old Brampton man travelling southbound on the Fifth Line failed to stop at the intersection stop sign and collided with a 1980 Ford driven westbound on Sideroad 5.

Two-car collision

Police laid a charge of driving left of centre following a two-car collision on John Street north of Victoria Street in Halton Hills the afternoon of Dec. 15. A 27-year-old Glen Williams man was driving a 1981 Mazda northbound when the car slid on the icy road and collided with a 1986 Plymouth travelling southbound. A 49-year-old Georgetown man was driving the Plymouth at the time of the accident.

Cars collide

Police laid a charge of failure to stop for a stop sign following a two-car collision on the Eighth Line at Sideroad 5 in Halton Hills during the late morning of Dec. 14. A 1989 Chevrolet travelling northbound on the Eighth Line failed to stop for a stop sign and collided with a 1980 Suzuki Jeep travelling westbound on Sideroad 5.

$125 damage

Someone caused $125 damage after puncturing a tire on a vehicle parked in the area of Rexway Drive in Georgetown four or five times overnight Dec. 9.

Spark plugs stolen

Police say someone stole the spark plugs and ripped out the wiring in a 1980 Plymouth parked in the area of Guelph Street and Sinclair Avenue in Georgetown causing about $200 damage sometime between the night of Dec. 13 and early the next morning. The culprit pulled on the latch cables of the vehicle to open the locked hood.
