

DEAR SANTA LETTERS

Santa's ready

Merry Christmas from the North Pole!

I've been getting letters like these from all the good little boys and girls all over the world for the past few weeks.

And I've been making special trips to many towns and villages all over the world to scout out who's been naughty and who's been nice.

I must say I found it a bit chilly in Georgetown and Acton during my recent trips there, but Rudolph, Dancer and Prancer and the rest of the gang say they're looking forward to our flight on Christmas Eve.

It seems those Teenage Mutant Ninja Turtles my elves have been working on all year are indeed popular.

It's just as well. Mrs. Claus and I sat down after Christmas last year and thought about what all the boys and girls would like.

But it was our chief elf who told us the turtles would be a hit.

We've had even more elves than ever working this year because there are so many good boys and girls throughout the world.

Remember, because it looks like it will be extra cold this year, Santa loves hot chocolate and especially chocolate chip cookies.

I've been checking up on Rudolph daily. Every year at this time his nose seems to get brighter by the day and this year is no exception.

Well, it's time to get some last minute toys made and I've got to go over my checklist with the elves.

Merry Christmas and have a Happy New Year. Love Santa

Dear Santa Claus,
