Henderson endorses good, clean hockey

Good, clean, fun hockey received another endorsement when former Team Canada and National Hockey League star Paul Henderson announced that almost 60 per cent of the teams that entered the 1989 Esso Penalty Free Sweepstakes won or tied their game.

Henderson made his remarks at a media conference to launch the 1990 Esso Penalty Free Sweepstakes. "For the second year in a row, the results of this program prove that penalty-free hockey is winning hockey event at the NHL level. Last season the New York Rangers played penalty free and defeated the New York Islanders 5-1 in a National Hockey League game on Jan. 7, 1989."

The Esso Penalty Free Sweepstakes is another amateur hockey initiative to promote skills, safety and sportsmanship in Canada's most popular sport. Developed by the members of the Hockey Development Centre for Ontario the program is sponsored by Esso Petroleum Canada and supported by the Ontario Ministry of Tourism and Recreation.

Acton Reps topped by Elora

The Acton Novice Reps hockey team changed sponsors - the team is now sponsored by Leathertown West Wearhouse - unfortunately, problems still continue to plague the team.

In recent Hub League action, the Leathertown West Wearhouse squad dropped a 7-0 decision to Elora in a game played at the Acton Community Centre.

The team was missing several members because of the flu and House League players Paul Withers and Ron McCasun were brought in as reinforcements. Both players played well.

Elora held a slim 1-0 lead after the first period but then took control of the contest.

The visitors led 4-0 after two periods en route to the 7-0 win.

Despite the score, Kyle Artem's play was praised, especially, his tenacious forechecking.

Acton's next game is Saturday in Hillsburgh against Grand Valley.
