Raiders deadlock Capitals

By COLIN GIBSON
 Herald Sports Editor
 Georgetown Pontiac-Buick Raiders followed up their strong effort from the previous evening against Streetsville Derbys by battling Brampton Capitals to a 6-6 tie in a Central Ontario Junior "B" Hockey League, West Division contest Friday night at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

The tie against the visiting Capitals gave the Raiders three out of a possible four points to close out 1989 on a positive note.

The 6-3 win over Streetsville Derbys Thursday evening coupled with the 6-6 deadlock with Brampton Friday night raises the Raiders season record to a slightly more respectable 4-2-1 heading into the 1990 portion of the Central Ontario Junior "B" Hockey League schedule.

The Raiders benefitted once again from a strong performance in the nets by Curtis Green who faced 54 enemy shots and turned aside 48.

The bulk of the Raiders offence was carried by John Williamson who potted a hat trick.

The game was scoreless after the first period as both Green and Brampton goaltender Steve Thorpe frustrated the respective gunners from both teams.

Raiders led 3-2 after the second period then left Green virtually defenceless in the third frame as he faced 30 shots in that period alone as Brampton scored four times, with three replies from the Raiders, to end the contest tied at 6-6.

Brent Presswood, Bill McDonald and Chris Lazarowff rounded out the Raiders scoring.

McDonald was a force to be contended with throughout the game as he also collected three assists.

Raiders opened 1990 season play on the road, with a game last night (Tuesday) in Peterborough.

This Friday Raiders journey to Oakville for a game against the West Division-leading Blades.

Raiders next home game is scheduled for Jan. 12, 8 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena against the visiting Brampton Capitals.

RAIDER NETMINDER CURTIS GREEN was superb in the 6-3 win over Streetsville Derbys last Thursday evening at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena. An enthusiastic crowd estimated at over 800 lent vocal support to Green's heroics. Green made 48 saves against the West Division's second place team, some of them of the spectacular variety. Green's defensive heroics were backed by the offensive production of Brent Presswood and Chris Lazarowff. Presswood had a six point night while Lazarowff matched that total with two goals and four assists. Raiders next home game is scheduled for Jan. 12, 8 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena against Brampton Capitals. (Herald photo)

Hats off to Raiders

Derbys bowled over by Georgetown

By COLIN GIBSON

Georgetown Pontiac-Buick Raiders came up with perhaps their best performance of the year last Thursday evening at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, defeating the visiting Streetsville Derbys 6-3 before a crowd estimated at over

The evening was designated as "Kids Nite" as the Raiders, in conjunction with the Georgetown Minor Hockey Association and sponsoring merchants in Halton Hills, had prizes galore for youngsters with lucky ticket numbers.

The Raiders saved the best prize for last, however, by turning in a performance that rated rave reviews.

"Everybody came to play," noted an obviously pleased Raider coach Peter Sturgeon. "It was an excellent team effort all round."

Raiders needed the type of team effort Sturgeon has seen only occasionally thus far in the 1989-90 Central Ontario Junior "B" Hockey League West Division season as the Derbys waltzed into Georgetown sporting the West Division's second-best overall record, just four points behind frontrunning Oakville Derbys. As well, Derbys were 32 points better than the Raiders in the West Division standings.

An excellent effort by Curtis Green in the Raiders nets seemed to inspire the Raiders throughout the first period and early into second period play.

There was little to choose between the two teams with Raiders holding the slight edge in play.

The Georgetown squad led 1-0 after 20 minutes of play and moved in front 2-0 eight minutes into the second period.

Strong play in their own end combined with some tenacious forechecking in the Streetsville zone allowed the Raiders the two goal cushion.

Then, as had happened to the Raiders so often this season, the Raiders got off their game and Streetsville mounted a comeback.

Raiders were outscored by the Derbys 2-1 in the second period to knot the game at three-all heading into the final period of play.

Atom House League

Gibbons and Walinga pace team to victory

Stephen Gibbons and Michael Walinga each collected hat tricks in pacing Varian to an 8-5 win over Jim/Pat Akers in a Georgetown Minor Hockey Association Atom House League game played Saturday.

J.T. Breckon and Jason Waterworth rounded out the scoring for the winners.

Cameron Hunter picked up two assists while Michael Walinga and Joshua Malinoski had single helpers for Varian.

Shawn Morden scored three times for Jim/Pat Akers with Aaron Dunlop adding two markers and picking up three assists.

Shaun Dunlop had two assists with Trevor Crane collecting a single assist.

Denis Paulin played an excellent game in the Jim/Pat Akers nets.

In another GMHA Atom House League game, Mathew Alexa, Paul Farmer, Warren Evans and Glen Brunskill were the marksmen as Dave's Service edged Rockwell 4-3.

Stewart Houston had a pair of assists for the winners with Ryan Boudreau, Warren Evans, Calvin Jimmie and Glen Brunskill picking up single assists.

Stewart Houston and Jason Myers played strong defensive games for Dave's Service.

Kyle Hancock couldn't be faulted for his efforts in the losing cause as he scored all three of the Rockwell goals.

Sam Southworth and Richard Hennessey notched assists.

In the hard-fought contest, Sam Southworth stopped numerous enemy rushes as well as contributing to the Rockwell attack.
