

Dart players have big hearts

The First Annual Ed Paterson Memorial Doubles Darts Tournament, held at the George and Dragon, has been heralded as a "Tremendous success" on a number of counts, according to tournament organizers Dave Paterson and Grant Richardson. "For something that took place with such short notice," commented Dave Paterson, "everything turned out great. The competition, the atmosphere and the co-operation of all involved could not have been better." Paterson also voiced a thank you to

George and Dragon owners, John and Julie Craig, who hosted the event and provided sandwiches for the competitors. The tournament also raised $250 for the Heart Fund. Bob Malcolmson, chairman of the Halton Hills Heart and Stroke Foundation, was on hand at the George and Dragon to accept the cheque for $250 from Dave Paterson, in memory of his father. ## Major Bantams

M & M Pro Sports top Dundas

M and M Pro Sports Major Bantam "AAs" are gearing up for playoffs.

After a long layoff (last league game was before Christmas) the bantams came back with a vengeance, putting together a three-game undefeated streak against some of the top place teams in Tri-County this past week.

Saturday saw the locals in Dundas for what turned out to be the wildest game of the season so far.

Georgetown was all over Dundas from the first faceoff with an excellent team effort, and fine goaltending from Tom Spencer, and they soon opened up a seven-goal lead.

Goal scorers from M and M were Shaun Curry with two goals, Mike Large, Matt Downs, Tim Presswood, Derick Ellard and Brent Couling each with singles.

After Georgetown's seventh unanswered goal at the midway mark of the third period Dundas frustration boiled over into an ugly brawl initiated by Dundas when their captain No. 10 dragged Mike Large from the penalty box and started pounding on him.

When it became clear that Dundas had picked the wrong guy to tangle with in Large, they sent reinforcements from their bench which resulted in a 20-minute delay in the game and many suspensions.

Credit has to be given to acting coach Rick Hume for keeping his players on the bench and not sinking to Dundas' level of play.

With Georgetown goalie being one of the ejected players, Dundas was able to get four quick goals but that's all they got as the final buzzer ended the game.

Georgetown 7, Dundas 4.

Monday had the bantams in Flamboro, missing three players thanks to Dundas, and still on a high from their big win there. Both teams played a fast hard hitting game for three periods. The first period was a goaltending duel with both Flamboro and Georgetown's Tom Diardichuck making sparkling saves to end the period scoreless. Flamboro broke the goose egg at 12:02 of the second while Georgetown was shorthanded but the locals came back with four quick goals, by Tim Presswood, Brent Couling, Chris Barrow and Steve Wright, to dampen Flamboro's attack.

Some bad penalties by Georgetown then allowed Flamboro to score two goals to bring the score to 4-3 when Georgetown's Matt Downs put the game away at 1:27 of the third from a Shawn Pearson pass. Pearson had a fine night picking up three points for his assists. Final score, Georgetown 5, Flamboro 3.

Tuesday night (fog bowl) had Georgetown playing host to second place Orangeville. The bantams proved to be poor hosts by scoring two goals in the first period and holding that lead till the third.

Scoring for Georgetown was Ken Kosziwka from Presswood and Downs and Brent Couling from Presswood. Orangeville finally scored early in the third and put the Georgetown goalie out of the game with an injured back (Diardichuck should be back for the weekend).

Marc St. Pierre was then pressed into action and performed exceptionally under trying circumstances. The locals again opened up the lead when Matt Downs converted a Steve Wright pass to set the score at 3-1.

Then control was taken away from the players as a very questionable call allowed Orangeville to get back in the game at 4:31, then tie it up with :37 seconds left, to end the game 3-3.

"Five out of a possible six points isn't a bad way to start the new year," said manager Rick Downs. "If we keep playing this way into playoffs we will definitely upset a few of the top rate teams."

M and M's next and last home game for the regular season is Sunday, 2:30 at Alcott against first place Stoney Creek. Come and support.

Tim Shier attacks slopes

Tim Shier of Limehouse joined Milton Heights Ski Club teammates Joe Hertz of Milton and Jason Penman of Burlington in making an impressive showing in the Second Division of the Southern Ontario Division ski races held on the weekend at Craighleath Ski Club in Collingwood.

Shier placed in the top 15 overall while teammate Hertz ranked second overall.

In their best showings, Penman finished second while Hertz was seventh in separate races.

The Milton Heights Ski Club's Blue team competed against Oshawa at the Oshawa Ski Club Sunday.

Amy Steen of Toronto was right behind in sixth place in the race while Sarah Hughes of Milton placed seventh.
