IN MEMORIAM

FRY, Joseph Alfred In loving memory of a dear Father and Grandpa, who passed away January 19, 1988.

It was two years ago today Since you suddenly passed away, The tears they come and go, How easily I've let them flow. If you were here, You'd say "Don't cry", and give me a hug and wipe my eyes. To me you were the greatest Dad, and also the best friend I ever had. No matter how I'd trip and stumble, You were the rock that never crumbled. When my kids remember the funny things you'd say, They smile and add "that was Grandpa's way". We miss you with each passing day, Just one more time I'd like to say, how proud I am to call you Dad, and how your loving faith would guide me thru good and bad. For all my life I'll never forget the one, who from birth to womanhood, showed me growing up could be fun. We miss and love you Dad, and all the good times that we had. No one in this world could take your place, We'll long remember your laugh, your warmth, your smiling face, Time is a healer of all wounds they say, but the loss we feel will never fade away. We love and miss you.

Always lovingly remembered and missed by daughter Marsha, son-in-law Jack and granddaughters Melissa, Tara-Lynn and Danielle Casson.
