

Woman injured

Allan Burton, 24, of John Street, Georgetown, is in satisfactory condition in St. Michael's Hospital in Toronto, police say. Mr. Burton was driving this 1990 Plymouth when the car went out of control and rolled into a ditch on River Road just east of the bridge, at approximately 1:15 a.m. Feb. 13. It took firemen just over 30 minutes to free Mr. Burton. The fire department had to enter through the rear window, pry open the passenger door and lift the car with air bags before they could safely move Mr. Burton.

Police Beat

Shots fired

Somebody shot at least 10 rounds of ammunition at an Ontario Provincial Police Communication Building located on Ninth Line south of Sideroad 10, Halton Regional Police say.

The shots were fired between Jan. 19 and Feb. 9 from a hunting rifle, police say.

One shot hit a diesel tank, spilling about 220 gallons of fuel into the earth.

Ten rounds of ammunition were found at the scene, police say.

In total $700 damage was sustained by the building, police reported.

Man arrested

A 22-year-old man was arrested after refusing to leave a Norval night club Feb. 10, police say. A doorman asked the man to leave three separate times. The person, who police say was intoxicated, refused to leave and a struggle ensued. Police were called to the scene, arrested a suspect, placed him in the cells of 11 Division, and released him the following morning.

Car demolished

A 1967 Chevrolet was demolished when the 47-year-old Georgetown driver drove toward a bridge on Maple Avenue. The car went out of control when it hit a patch of ice. The car hit a metal rail fence and dropped 10 metres off a bridge to the ground below, Jan. 24 at 7:45 a.m., police say. There were no injuries in the accident.

Window smashed

Somebody broke the lower window of a front door at the YM-CA/10 Division of the Halton Regional Police Force in Acton between midnight and 1:15 a.m. Feb. 11. Damage is approximately $225.

VCR missing

A video cassette recorder, three video cassettes and a silver VCR carrying case have not yet been returned to a Queen Street video store in Acton. A person rented the equipment on Jan. 25 and has not yet returned them, police say. Total value of the package is approximately $650.

Disks stolen

Someone broke into a Guelph Street television store in Georgetown at 9:14 p.m. Feb. 10. The culprit set off an alarm and police responded. When the police arrived at the scene the store looked secure. The owner was contacted by police. The culprits had stolen 23 compact disks and cash from the register. It appears the culprits were interrupted by police since a group of disks that had been gathered were left behind. The people responsible left through the rear door.

The store has asked police to investigate the matter.

Charge laid

A 39-year-old Oakville woman has been charged with dangerous driving after the 1984 Mercury she was driving went out of control and skidded into the rear of a 1988 Acura, at 3:30 Feb. 11. The driver of the Acura, a 32-year-old woman from Weston, had stopped to turn left onto Ninth Line South from Steeles Avenue with her turn signal on when the collision happened. The Mercury received moderate damage and the Acura received severe damage.

Break and enter in Milton

By Sergeant Dave Atkinson
Crime Stoppers of Halton
Halton Regional Police in Milton are seeking the suspects responsible for two break, enter and thefts at the Derry Dispensary, 3006 Derry Rd. in Milton.

The entries took place early Saturday morning, Jan. 6, and again at 5:30 a.m., Tuesday, Jan. 16. In both instances entry was made by breaking a plate glass window. Once inside the culprits went straight to the dispensing counter and forced open the cupboards and drawers removing the drugs and narcotics. The cash register was also rifled with a quantity of cash being taken.

Although the alarm system was activated and the police responded within minutes, no suspects were observed in the area.

Drug stores can be a target for drug users who often steal for their own use as well as selling the stolen narcotics to others.

The stolen drugs included: Robitussinac, Phenegran VC, Tussaminic DH Forte, Dimetane, Dilaudid, Seconal, Lomotil, Novoridazine.

Crime Stoppers will pay up to $1,000 for information that leads to an arrest in this case or any

Milton store robbed at knife point

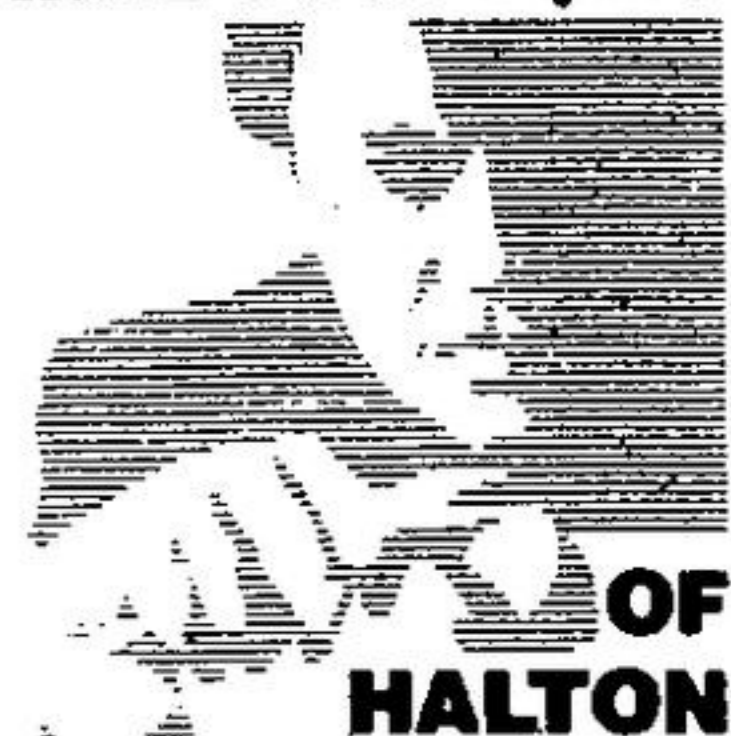

Two men armed with knives and wearing stocking masks, robbed a convenience store on Steeles Avenue East in Milton, at 4 a.m. Feb. 10, Halton Regional Police say.

The culprits entered the store and approached the lone male cashier and demanded cash. They made their escape on foot, police say. The man was not injured.

Police are looking for help in tracking the culprits and ask anyone with information to call 878-5511 extension 415 or Crime Stoppers at 1-800-668-5151.

The suspects were both between 18 and 20 years old. One was wearing tan gloves, a red sweater and blue jeans. The other was wearing a white short-sleeved shirt, light blue jeans and white running shoes.
