Rabid fox

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

NORVAL-A rabid fox was spotted by Wes Louth of Draper St., Norval on Jan. 9. While Wes was in his cabin at the back of the house, by the Credit River, he spotted a fox where he feeds the geese. He finally went out to scare it off, but it came toward him, so he retreated to his cabin. The fox chewed at both window sills and door, before he disappeared, and Wes felt safe in venturing to the house, where he called the animal control and police. While they were checking the area out, Bill Hunter called to say he had been out for a walk and sighted a fox along the Credit River banks and later in Ken Robinson's front yard, when it gave Bill good reason for a fast retreat. However the animal control spent three hours in the village going from east to west, along the river bank, without spotting the fox. He advised parents to alert their children, and keep their pets inside and have them inoculated.

Couple move

NORVAL-We are sorry to see that Hugh and Bonnie McFarlane are selling their home in Norval, having lived here 19 years. The McFarlanes bought the home from Hardy Barnhill, our former postmaster and general merchant whose family owned the property for some 70 years.

Hugh McFarlane was president of the Norval Community Association for five years commencing in 1974. During his time as president of the association he was instrumental in obtaining the old school as a community centre, in bringing municipal water to the village as well as new street lights.

Mr. McFarlane operated a real estate office in his home for several years prior to forming his own company in 1987 with offices in Mississauga, specializing in industrial and commercial properties.

Surprise party

After opening many beautiful gifts, a lovely lunch was served, followed by dancing. Guests were present from Brampton, Grand Bend, Georgetown, Hamilton and Norval.
