

Darts Leagues Roundup

Georgetown darts leagues look to future expansion

Just a wee reminder that there is a four person teams tourney at the Legion on Friday the 23rd, with registration at 7 to 7:30 when play is expected to commence in the usual round robin format.

Entry is $12 per team with first, second, third and last place winnings. Top scores for male and female are also presented in "pennies" which depends upon the number of entries.

Prior to this date, this Saturday in fact, the Legion's teams tourney takes place with finals of singles, doubles and teams at the next round in Fort Erie on Feb. 24.

MONDAY HALTON LEAGUE

First report is that entries from Acton and Milton look certain to approach the league next season and if the players I know of are anything to measure by, the league competition will be something to behold.

At the same time a number of young lads have been coming down to Kaspers each week for the past three or four and intend to apply from that establishment in addition to the team already there.

The big match of the week has to be that played between second and third placed McGibbon I and O'Tooles II respectively. Going into the match there were 26 points difference - coming out of the match there are still 26 points difference.

A fine to-do took place to end in a 7-7 tie; the first tie for II and the second for I. Terry Hancock and Dave Scutt both scored double 140s and singles went to Erwin See, Rick Harden, Dan Engleby, Paul Kirby and Ian McDonald.

Meanwhile, O'Tooles I were winning 11-3 over McGibbon II. Kim Smid, Mike Pepper, Doug Hole and Danny Drumm each scored above the 130 mark for extra points. Oh dear, Mark See, Kevin Baldwin and "dummy" were the losing points for the lads as Sheila Hicks and Kim Smid were the playing wins for the girls.

Rod Prestwood was the only individual scorer 140 in the Copper Kettle I vs II match and the 1s came out top by 9-5 in the end. My old soccer mate Gary Spiller pulled off a doubles win and former (?) cricketer Neville Samaroo won his singles. Time Out II defeated Kaspers 10-4 and the game sheet was not handed so no details for the column this time.

Time Out I pulled off a 12-2 win over Station House. As Greg Thoms said, "I think we took it a little too easy after our win over the girls last week." Brian Hicks dropped his singles to Greg Thoms and Bill Taylor and Dave Civiero won their doubles from Joe Cairns and Danny Fraser in a three setter, for both games.

Cairns closed out 161 for the league's second highest finish of this season. Jim Charter leading this section with 167 earlier. Beau Beaumont closed 100 and Cairns came close with another high just missing a double. Cairns had a good night with two 140s as did Ron Scarlett. Single 140 scores went to Dwayne Maltby, Greg Thoms, Beau Beaumont and Danny Fraser.

WEDNESDAY INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE

First there was a captain's meeting of second division teams following the shortened schedule with the loss of two teams from the roster recently. Another gathering will likely be held soon to decide the fate of the Alf Oates trophy tourney which is incomplete from December. It may well be played off after the regular play one evening in the near future with eligible players being the only real block.

Thanks to all the team captains who took a little extra trouble to complete the additional stats on the team results sheets. This is a big help in preparing the column.

The first division continues to see Snowjacks Hustlers move ahead of the pack. In the second division Panthers steal away from their followers.

Pride of place however must go to Steeprock. Rock took all nine sets from Westenders who just simply could not get going with the closing doubles. Eric Fuller had three starts and Derek Hardcastle had the scores, including 121 and that was that for 'Enders. Paul Kirby had five closes and a start of 100 with three ton plus scores. Hugh Smid opened with 108 and shot 140.

Lowly Ensigns took five from Gasketman Cutters with Roy Rudiger turning in a usual steady performance, four opens, three closes. Jeff Richardson had an 80 start in his three and followed with two closes. Bruce Hope coming in with 140.

Acadian Pools and Bulldogs were involved in another one point difference match. Dogs howled their way to victory in the last set. Tim Field had four starts and two closes and Mike Finn supported with three opens. One of Field's opens was 138. Exports also won by the narrow margin of one, over bottom team Golden Flights. Laurie Hopkins shot 121 opened three and closed one. Al Murphy scored 140, otherwise a quiet night for him. Pete Pickering opened with 120 and Brian Hicks fired a neat 180 maximum.

Another maximum, neat as a pin, also came from Ron Scarlett to match a 140, three opens and closes as Snowjacks Hustlers defeated High Rollers 6-3. Rollers simply could not get started. When they did they scored. The leaders just made it in spite of the score in their favor.

Panthers doused the Firemen, nearest challengers, 7-2 and look now as though they are headed back to the top division. Aces are closing and now in second spot after winning 6-3 over Taxmen. Independents hang in there waiting for a slip and took Bandits 7-2. Power of Pain defeated Outlaws 6-3 to round off the second division.

Paul Karolidis had a big night with four starts, a finish and five high scores including two 120s.
