

Acton novices bow to Fergus

Acton Leathertown West Warehouse Major Novice hockey team put up a spirited fight, but in the end bowed to a stronger opponent and out of further OMHA play, losing to Fergus in two straight in OMHA best-of-three playdowns.

Last Wednesday (Feb. 7) evening at the Acton Community Centre, Fergus triumphed 4-1, then wrapped up the series by winning 3-1 in a game played last Thursday night in Fergus.

The close scores speak volumes about the steady improvement of the Acton team over the season as during regular season Hub League play, Fergus finished a full 20 points ahead of the Leathertown squad in league standings.

In the home encounter in Acton the local favorites failed to finish off a number of excellent scoring chances and this proved to be the difference in the game.

Fergus led 2-1 after the first period and salted away the 4-1 win with a pair of third period markers.

Devon Fraser converted a pass from Sandy Chapman for the lone Acton goal.

Andrew Coe played his usual solid game in the Acton nets.

In Fergus Thursday evening the game was up in the air until the third period.

The game was tied 1-1 heading into the final frame then Fergus potted two while blanking the Acton sharpshooters to register the 3-1 victory.

Devon Fraser once again was the Acton sniper off a pass from Mark Fasuruk.

Andrew Coe manned the nets for Acton.

To keep the team sharp for upcoming league playoff action the Leathertown West Warehouse squad took on Georgetown in an exhibition contest at the Acton Community Centre on Saturday.

Acton triumphed 2-1 as hard-working defenceman Sandy Chapman scored what proved to be the winning goal with less than six minutes left in the game.

The game was scoreless heading into the third period then Devon Fraser, with assists to Kevin Dick and Andrew Coe got Acton on the scoreboard.

Chapman's game winner came off passes from Devon Fraser and Kyle Artem.

Trevor Cash, on a pass from Jason Campbell, counted the Georgetown goal.

Kevin Denny was in nets for Acton while Tyler Pierce manned the pipes for Georgetown.

Stinger on the attack

Stewarttown Stinger player Michelle Neath, heads to the basket while teammate Sheri Buker provides a pick in a North Halton Public Schools girls basketball contest played last Tuesday at Stewarttown against Brookville. There was good news and bad news for Stewarttown teams that afternoon. The Stewarttown boys team demolished Brookville 36-21, while the girls team lost to Brookville 24-6. For the Stewarttown girls team Joanne Meeker scored four points while Sarah Buckle contributed two points. Matt Brain led the assault against Brookville with a 14-point effort. David Zylstra scored 12 points, James Burt hooped six points and Tarik Josaitis chipped in with a two-point effort. Playoff action starts next week for both boys and girls teams in the North

Football league plans season

The Georgetown Men's Flag Football League is gearing up for the 1990 season and a league operational meeting has been scheduled for Sunday, March 4, according to league president, Gord McNeilly.

The league started out with 10 teams last year but dropped to nine when Norval couldn't field enough players.

According to McNeilly, eight teams have indicated they will be competing for the league championship in 1990, won last year by the Longhorns.

McNeilly stated that additional teams could be accommodated for the upcoming campaign and requests that either teams or individuals wishing to play in the league contact him at 877-9156 for further information.

The 1990 season is slated to get under way in mid-May and run through September.

Games are played Sundays at the Georgetown District High School field, starting at 8:45 a.m. and no league games are scheduled on holiday weekends.

As always, the league is looking to attract individuals interested in football officiating. Training is provided and officials are paid immediately following completed games.

Further information on officiating in the league can be obtained by contacting Colin Gibson at 877-2201 or 877-7633.
