

Sports Outlook

COLIN GIBSON - Herald Sports Editor

Tipping at the top

JEN IRWIN, of the GDHS Rebels senior girls volleyball team slips a tip-spike past a Loyola Hawks defender during play in Tuesday's Halton League quarter-final playoff match at GDHS. In the foreground is teammate Julie Ross (No. 5) who made the set for Irwin's attack. The Rebels disposed of Loyola Hawks in two straight games, 15-8 and 15-9, in the best-of-five match. (Herald photo by Colln Gibson)

Hawks clipped by GDHS Rebs

By COLIN GIBSON
Herald Sports Editor
The Georgetown District High School Rebels senior girls volleyball team made short work of Loyola Hawks, of Oakville, Tuesday afternoon to advance to semi-final play in Halton League Senior Girls Volleyball League East Division playoff action.

The Rebels disposed of Loyola 15-8 and 15-9 in the best-of-three match played at GDHS and aside from some early second game miscues, were never really threatened in the match.

Loyola had finished in fourth place in the East Halton League standings during the regular season while the Rebels claimed the regular season crown by demolishing Oakville-Trafalgar High School in a season-ending clash for the regular season championship.

Rebel coach Bevin Clark, appeared never to doubt his charges would put away Loyola. "Granted, it might have been a bit of a grudge match because we lost to them earlier in the regular season," said Clark, "but I didn't think for a minute we would lose to them again and the girls proved it."

With Loyola threatening a comeback in the first game, with the score 10-8 in the Rebels' favor, Lisa Clark calmly stepped to the serving area and her serves combined with some strong net work by Julie Ross and Jen Irwin, finished off Loyola 15-8.

It took the Rebels some time to get rolling in the second game as the team appeared to lose concentration in the early going. Loyola led 4-3 at one point and 6-5 a little later.

Then, substitute Kelly Cotton took command and her serves moved the Rebels in front 10-6.

Loyola rallied to 10-9 but was a last gasp effort and with Kim Collison serving, Holly Sones provided the final kill for the 15-9 game and match win.

Anna Toone, a Rebel mainstay, provided excellent sets for a number of Rebel kills.

Figure skaters collect medals

Results of the Peel-Halton InterClub Competition held on Feb. 11.

NAME	EVENT	PLACEMENT
Tim Baker	Pre-Preliminary Men	2nd
Katie Cochrane	Junior Ladies	2nd
Danielle Dembie	Pre-Novice Ladies	2nd
Michael Fedchyshyn	Pre-Juvenile Men	2nd
Rosie Gimeno	Juvenile Ladies	3rd
Peter Johnson	Junior Men's Interpretive	2nd
Tanya Little	Preliminary Ladies	6th
Amy Longworth	Junior Silver Solo Dance	2nd
Amber Lyons	Pre-Juvenile Ladies	4th
Heidi Nixdorf	Senior Silver Solo Dance	7th
Marcia Parker	Senior Bronze Solo Dance	8th
Kimberley Snow	Pre-Preliminary Ladies	6th
Lesley Watson	Junior Ladies Interpretive	2nd

GLEN WILLIAMS Minor Softball Association 1990 REGISTRATION

Place: St. Albans Hall, Glen Williams

Dates: Saturday, March 3rd 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
Saturday, March 24th 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.
Saturday, March 31st 10:00 a.m.-1:00 p.m.

Age Restrictions:

Open to all softball players that are between the ages of 5 thru 18 before January 1/90. (Proof of age required).

Fees: (All divisions except T-ball)

1 Player/Family - $35.00 (Plus uniform deposit)
2 Players/Family - $65.00 (plus uniform deposit)
3 Players/Family - $70.00 (plus uniform deposit)

T-ball - $25.00/Player

Uniform Deposits:

A deposit of $10.00/player to a maximum of $30.00/family is required when registering and will be refunded when uniform(s) are returned at the end of the softball season.

... We are looking for volunteers to be coaches and umpires for this ball-playing season. anyone interested, please let us know on registration days.

Raiders behind 8-ball

Derbys take series lead

By COLIN GIBSON
Herald Sports Editor

Georgetown Pontiac-Buick Raiders find themselves behind the proverbial 8-ball following an 8-5 loss to Streetsville Derbys, Tuesday evening in Streetsville, in the fifth game of the Central Ontario Junior "B" Hockey League, West Division, opening round best-of-seven playoff series.

The Tuesday night win gave Streetsville a 3-2 lead in the series. The sixth game in the series was played Friday night at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena. At press time, the score was not available, so by the time this report hits the streets, the Raiders 1989-90 season could be history.

Should a seventh game be needed, it is scheduled for tomorrow (Sunday) in Streetsville.

"We just got away from our game," said Raider coach Peter Sturgeon, in explaining the loss. "We were still in the game in the second period but then the guys started dippy-doodling in the neutral zone instead of going for the body and Streetsville took full advantage. We were playing their game instead of our own."

Additionally, Sturgeon felt the officiating was one-sided and "atrocious" for an important Junior "B" playoff game.

"This just isn't sour grapes," said Sturgeon, "but the referee was terrible. He was so one-sided, it wasn't even funny. On the same play, our guy would get four minutes while their guy just gets two. It was very frustrating for the players."

Three of Streetsville's eight goals came with the man advantage.

Raiders jumped out to a 2-0 first period lead but then Streetsville replied with a pair of their own - the second of the "soft variety" - to end first period play with the game tied at two.

While the Raiders "dippy-doodled" in the second period, the Derbys were blinking the red light and Streetsville moved ahead 5-2 after 40 minutes.

The teams matched three goal efforts in the final frame but the damage had been done to the Raiders in the second stanza and Streetsville was allowed to skate off to the 8-5 win.

Raider regular season scoring champion, Brent Presswood, had another stellar offensive outing, scoring three times and collecting an assist.

Kevin Brown continued with his offensive prowess of late by scoring twice and adding a single helper to round out the Raiders scoring.

Single Raider assists went to Steve Dubarry, Jason Lucas (an Acton Sabre recruit), Andre Gregoire, Duane Lewis and Chris Lazarowff.

Shawn Ries replaced Curtis Green in the Raiders nets for the final seven minutes of the contest.