Couple's club

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent
NORVAL-The Couple's Club of Norval United Church, met at Yong's Restaurant in Georgetown for Chinese dinner on Feb. 21. Following dinner, everyone walked across the street to the Cultural Centre where they enjoyed the play "The Burning Man" produced by the Georgetown Little Theatre, a suspense drama from start to finish. The evening was arranged by Fred and Marg Clarkson of Georgetown.

Prayer day

NORVAL-The World Day of Prayer will be held at Norval United Church on March 9, 10 a.m. for coffee. The service will start at 10:30 a.m. The theme "A Better Tomorrow - Justice for All," was prepared by the Women of Czechoslovakia. The guest speaker will be Pastor John Novak, a retired minister from Annette St. Baptist Church in Toronto. The date has been changed from March 2 to March 9 to accommodate the speaker.

Church meeting

NORVAL-Ethel Webb hosted Unit 1 of Norval United Church on Feb. 22. The dessert lunch was served by Marion Laird and assisted by the hostess. President Dorothy McLean opened the meeting with several short poems, including Laughter, Happiness, A Smile, Daily Reflections and My Recipe. The World Day of Prayer was announced to be March 9, one week later than planned.

Agnes Miller read a humorous article "Thursday - 4:30." A message was received that the Lord was to arrive on "Thursday - 4:30," but the Lord did not say where he would arrive. All the religious leaders of the world began making plans for his arrival, each trying to outdo the other. Then a second message came saying the Lord would arrive in Johannesburg, South Africa. When the Lord did come, he made himself known to an ordinary black working man in the city, rather than arriving at the station, where all the religious leaders of the world were waiting for him, in anticipation.

Brampton WI

NORVAL-Brampton West Women's Institute held its February meeting at the home of Isabelle McClure.

Dessert and coffee was served while President Mae Dixon opened the meeting in the usual way. Roll Call "What year did you join the W.I." was answered by all members with some even remembering at what meeting, whose home and the year as well.

Mae Dixon read a letter from the FWIO President Peggy Knapp with information about the Ottawa Conference June 1, 2, and 3. A new video is now available for loan entitled "What's for lunch?"

Isobel McKay introduced Mrs. Jo-Anne Robertson organizer of the Peel Memorial Hospital 65th Birthday Bash February 1, 2, and 3. As Peel Women's Institutes had been granted the first Hospital Charter June 7, 1910, Jo-Anne included the Peel Institutes as part of the celebration.

A paper compiled and read by Mary Garbutt told of the contributions Brampton West members have made to the hospital. They supplied jam and pickles for meals, linens for the nurses residents, furnished patients rooms, and made lunches for the hospital auxiliary sales. Many $5 and $10 donations were made earned by catering, bake sales, making of quilts and any way a few dollars could be made.

Jo-Anne told of the hospital's past and gave an insight as to what is in store for the future. In the next five to ten years the hospital will take on a hotel like setting, with new wings, underground parking and new concepts in patient care.

A cheque for $2,000 was presented to Jo-Anne by Esther McClure and Janet Anthony's niece Mary Janet Walsma on behalf of the members and the late Janet Anthony. Janet had been a very devoted worker for W.I. and PMH for many years and was a charter member. The money will be used to purchase two recliner chairs used for special patient care.

Margaret McClure will be hostess of the Grandmothers Meeting March 13, at 1:30 p.m., everyone is welcome.

The Stewart family, although not all are new to the area, have recently moved to Halton Hills from Mississauga. The family, (from left to right) Tamara, James, Mary and three-month old Hayley, moved onto McFarlane Drive just as 1989 was coming to a close. James and his mother, Mary, all lived in Halton Hills before moving to Mississauga. Tamara and Hayley are brand new to Halton Hills. Tamara says the town "needs more shopping malls."
