

Rolling Meadows wins 42-32

Chargers sidelined for season

The Centennial Chargers boys basketball team saw their 1989-90 season come to a close last Thursday as the Georgetowners were defeated 43-32 by a well-rounded Rolling Meadows team from Burlington in a game played at Centennial school to decide the wild card entry in Halton public schools semi-final sudden-death playoffs.

The Chargers and Rolling Meadows went head-to-head, with the winner rounding out the Halton League semi-finals final four that already includes North Halton champion Stewarttown Stingers and champion representatives from East and South Halton.

The semi-final games were played Tuesday afternoon, at press time, the scores were not available.

The Halton championship match will be played Thursday (tomorrow) at either an Oakville or Burlington location.

Stewarttown Stingers laid claim to the North Halton crown by narrowly edging the Chargers 37-35 in the championship game and the problems that plagued the Chargers against the Stingers, surfaced again against Rolling Meadows.

Poor free throw shooting, problems with offensive rebounds and an over-reliance on gunner, Jim Katsilieris, shunted the Chargers to the sidelines.

The Chargers were good on only two-of-10 attempts from the free throw line, and while Rolling Meadows wasn't much better, 5-19, the shots they made served to take away Centennial momentum.

In addition, nine players moved in and out of the Rolling Meadows floor-five all game, while the Chargers basically went with their starting five, who late in the game ran into foul trouble.

Charger centre, Toli Toris, eventually fouled-out, while regulars, Katsilieris, Stephen Onoprijenko and Graham Kennedy ended the game with four fouls each, which severely limited their effectiveness through the stretch run of the game in the fourth quarter.

The first quarter ended with the game tied 10-10, but a 12-5 Rolling Meadows second period surge, allowed the visitors to lead 22-15 at the half, effectively put the wraps on the Chargers.

Rolling Meadows outscored the Chargers 8-6 in the third period and 13-11 in the fourth period to seal the 43-32 win.

Jim Katsilieris led all game scorers with 18 points, teammate Graham Kennedy hooped 10 points. Jay Johnson and Toli Toris each had two points for the Chargers.

Bill Tomkins had 14 points for Rolling Meadows with Andrew Pigeon adding a 10-point effort.

Healthy lifestyle alternatives

"Lifestyles of Halton Hills: Rich in Resources... Famous for Fun" is announced as the name for the upcoming community organization showcase now being planned by the Cooperative Program Planning Committee of Halton Hills.

Scheduled to take place on Saturday, Sept. 29, this fourth edition of the popular exposition will again be held in the Georgetown District High School.

This year's theme of "Healthy Lifestyle Alternatives" builds on an initiative from the Ontario Ministry of Health. Special events and demonstrations will focus on the subjects of adopting a low-fat diet, moderating alcohol consumption, smoking cessation and increasing physical activity and community participation.

A family "Health Safari" game will be part of the day's activities and participants who successfully stalk the clues and collect the correct "game bag" will be eligible to win a variety of exciting and valuable prizes.

Participant application forms will be going out shortly to all the community groups who have previously taken part and who are registered with the Recreation and Parks Department.

Organizations interested in this opportunity to present themselves to the community who do not receive a form should call Jeff Bitton, 873-2600, ext. 262.
