

Beaver Lumber gnaws Oakville

By WENDI GOODHEW
Herald Special

Coaches McLeod, Markham, LaRose and Kraus drove their Black Machines to Oakville to try for three straight wins in the playoff Tri-County tour.

Heavy Chevy Robert McLeod was cruising in this game as he blinked the scoreboard for two goals and an assist. Mini Model Dan Cabral had his machine No. 9 in gear through the game, and it paid off when he beat Oakville's tough goalie to rack up a goal.

Eager Beaver Ryan Smith was knocking on Oakville's door all night but just could not find the key. Demolition Dave Markham and Maddog Mike Madill made some nice passes and showed us lots of action along the boards.

Mighty Mike Kraus found his spot to score one for the Black Machines. Birdman Judd Richardson and Grizzly Jeff Barr played a tough game clearing the front of our net and playing the blueline.

The gruesome twosome No. 15 and No. 16 Tiger Jeff Telford and Moose Joey Goodhew proved they could hold the fort when Georgetown took many trips to the penalty pit stop for a rest. This pair came up big at the blueline. This defence pair have telepathic communications between them, they always seem to know where the other is going and cover each other working as a great team.

You have to get by both of them, which is next to impossible when they're playing in high gear.

Stretch Chris Hall was in net for Georgetown, and he came up big. At a glance you'd think you were watching Brian Hayward. For only his second year in net Chris takes his job very seriously and has really improved especially in those stretch plays. Just when you think it's impossible to stop he gives that Hall stretch and just reaches the puck.

Bruno Joey Barber took a rest this game after playing a big game against Ching. Holy Moley, have we got two great goalies! P.S. Good game to Jim Hall, who played in net on every move with his son Chris. It's a tough job yeh Dad!

Georgetown bowling report

Paul Chaplin to bowl for big bucks

On Sunday at Georgetown Bowl, a band of local hopefuls vied for the right to represent Georgetown in the TSN Pins Game TV Series.

The rivalry the past two years between Paul Chaplin and Brinley Hole had been successfully topped by Hole.

This time however, Chaplin took the lead with 264 in the first game and never gave way. The closest Hole came was within 34 pins and when he rolled a 290 things looked hopeful. But, it was negated two games later when Chaplin came back with a 307. For the eight-game set, Paul Chaplin averaged over 251.

Gord Lane ended up in third place but his highest game was only 255. Larry Hunt's first attempt at these tournaments availed him fourth place followed by Chris Styles and Bill Lane.

The "Pins Game" series is sponsored exclusively by The Sports Network and the Bowling Proprietors of Canada. It will have a total of $64,000 each for both the female and the male divisions in the 5-pin and 10-pin game. The next final provincial round is still to be determined.

NEILSON BOWLERS

The shining light in the Neilson's Bowling League this week was Gerry Bos.

He started his Sunday morning league bowling with a game of 252 and finished with 382. What made the last game memorable was the fact that Bos started with a headpin hit and finished with a headpin.

In between there were nine consecutive strikes. His triple for the day was 777. Trying to keep up was Albert O'Meara with his 724 and high single of 263. To top the ladies there was Darlene Edwardson with 613 and a high single of 224.
