Sunny Acre Farms stumble to tie

By COLIN GIBSON
Herald Sports Editor

In what might graciously be described as the team's "least artistic effort" - hockey-wise - of the season, Georgetown Sunny Acre Farms major midgets stumbled to a 4-4 overtime tie with Markham in the second game of an OMHA best-of-five (first team to six points) semifinal playoff series, Tuesday night at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

The first game in the series was played last Sunday in Markham with the host team eking out a narrow 5-4 win.

A coin toss gave Markham home ice advantage in the series and because of problems with player availability, the third game won't be played until March 17, in Markham.

The fourth game in the series is scheduled for March 20, 8:30 p.m. at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, while the fifth game, if necessary, would be played March 21 at the Markham Community Centre.

A winner in the series must be declared by March 21.

Bantam tourney now underway

The 30th Annual Georgetown Minor Hockey Association 1990 Bantam International Hockey Tournament gets under way today (Saturday) at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena, with 32 teams challenging in four divisions plus the Grand Championship Final.

Games run through next Saturday, when division and Grand Championship silverware will be up for grabs.

Games today (Saturday) run from 8 a.m. through 9:15 p.m.

Halton Hills will ice three contending teams.

An entry from Acton joins Georgetown "B" Domtar bantams in "D" Division, while Georgetown's M and M Pro Sports major bantams are entered in "C" Division.

All tournament games will be played at Gordon Alcott Memorial Arena.

Today (Saturday) Acton faces Hamilton Bengals in a 1 p.m. game; Georgetown Domtar bantams clash with Ancaster II in a 6:45 p.m. scheduled game, while M and M Pro Sports major bantams take to the ice against Royal York in an 8 p.m. match.

Charlie Hanman was mystified by the efforts of his charges, who held one goal leads at various times throughout the game.

"It's frustrating," said Hanman, "after all the work we put in preparing for this series to see the guys make so many mental mistakes. The give-aways in our own end were unreal. You can't win hockey games that way. And in their end, we just didn't capitalize on a number of good scoring opportunities. The guys got away from our game, which is dump the puck out of our end and into their end, and started playing as individuals."

Despite the frustrating tie, Hanman is confident his team will win the series.

"They (Markham) are a better team than we faced in Tri-County competition," stated Hanman. "But you can bank on this, we're going to come out on top."

Neither team appeared on top of their game and sloppy play, combined with countless unnecessary shoving matches after the whistle gave the contest a herky-jerky flavor with neither team being able to establish any kind of momentum.

Sunny Acre Farms had the lead four times, but each time allowed

Markham back into the game, much to the chagrin of the good-sized crowd that turned out to cheer the hometown favorites on.

Sunny Acre Farms had a 2-1 lead entering third period play, then both teams picked up the pace and the best hockey of the game was played.

Markham tied the game on a power play with 9:28 left, as a disorganized Sunny Acre defence failed to clear the front of the net and the puck escaped from a scrum and sought refuge in the Georgetown net.

Less than 12 seconds later, Georgetown regained the lead, but a giveaway in the Georgetown end with just 6:29 to play, sent the contest into overtime.

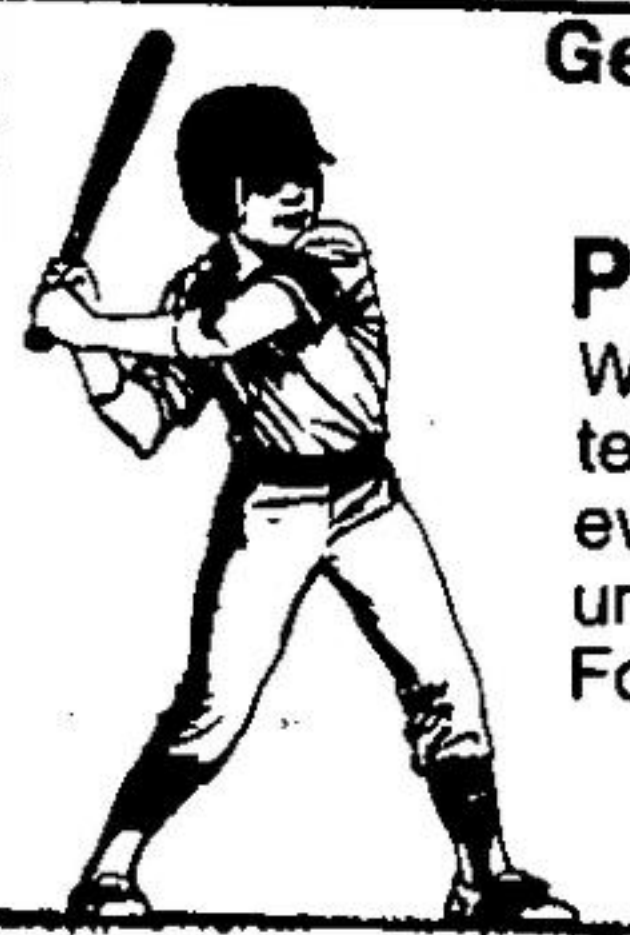

Once again, Sunny Acre Farms moved ahead, with 6:50 left in the 10-minute overtime period, but less than a minute later, the eventual 4-4 deadlock was gained as another giveaway resulted in the Markham marker.

Brad Tutt had a pair of assists for Georgetown with Gord Burke, Lorito and Rob Lang picking up single helpers.
