Second City returns to Georgetown

The Second City Comedy Revue is coming to Halton Hills on Saturday, March 31 at 8 p.m. The Arts Alive committee has booked the hilarious comedy act at the John Elliott Theatre. After a long winter, Arts Alive members figure Halton Hills is in the mood for a laugh. The Second City touring company travels across North America. Time Magazine calls it "brilliant" while The New York Post reviews say "subtly and superbly funny."

The Second City is extremely popular and their two previous appearances in Georgetown sold out. To make the event a special occasion, Arts Alive has also planned a big o' beef dinner in the gallery. Dinner seats are limited to 90 people but the theatre holds

267. Tickets are $15 for the show and $10 for the dinner. Tickets are on sale now at Royal LePage Real Estate, 170 Guelph Street, Georgetown or at the libraries in both Georgetown and Acton. For further information call 877-7915.
