

Dart League Roundup

The end is in sight for champions to repeat

MONDAY, HALTON LEAGUE

The end is in sight now, four points are all that are needed for Time Out I to emerge as repeat champions for this season.

A 13-1 victory over Copper Kettle I, coupled with McGibbon I only managing to win 8-5 over O'Tooles I shortened the necessary margin to keep the race tighter. O'Tooles II remain striving to catch up with McGibbon lads for second place and picked up two points with a 10-4 win over Time Out II.

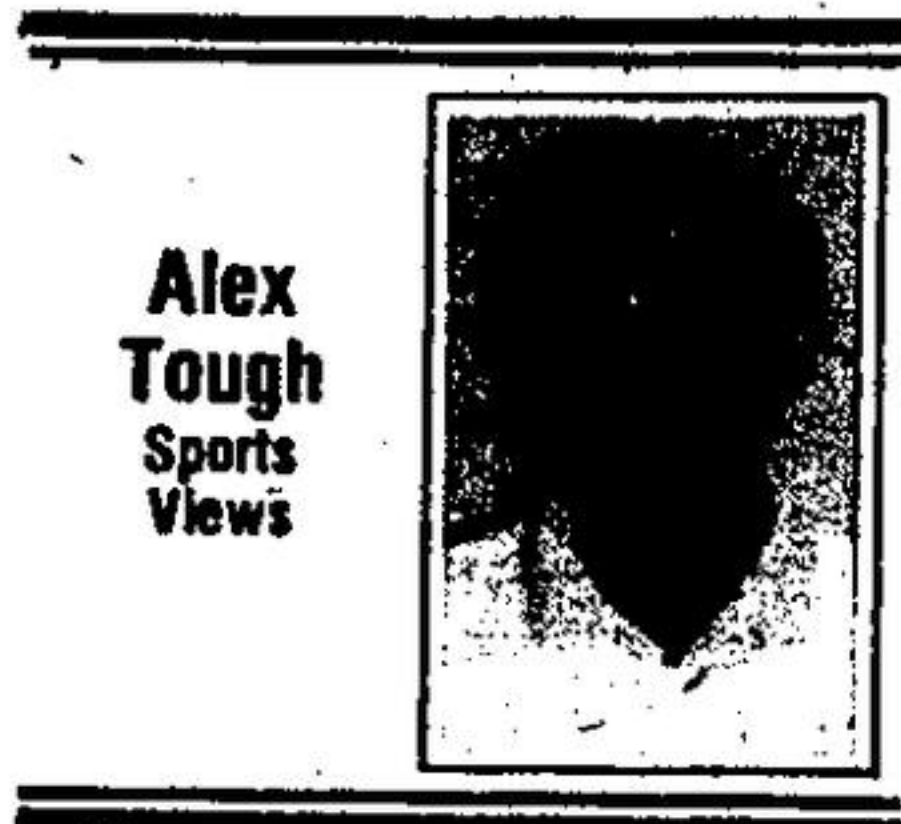

Copper Kettle II defeated the ladies from McGibbon by 10-4. A few teams were shorthanded this past week, and no result sheets from Kaspers/Station House - again. Three league matches to play before beginning the playoffs, and next week we shall be involved in the league players singles championships.

Paul Kirby had a big night with a maximum, high finish of 122 and Dave Scutt threw impressively for 160 and 140. Sheila Hicks and Monica Southon both fired in 140s for the ladies. Other 140 scores were achieved by Dan Drumm, Brian Hicks, Beau Beaumont, Ron Scarlett, John Colter, Rob Poyner and self. Just short of 140 were Rob Marrows, Doug Hole and Rob Wilson.

Incredible as it may seem, a player quit playing in the league last November because her name did not, apparently, appear in the weekly report in the column. So I am told by her husband. She popped in a high score against Time Out I.

Unfortunately I do not keep copies of what is published after appearing in print and I do not have a copy of that particular week's report. What is even more incredible is that I only learned of the situation in the past few days.

Several players must be considered in the running for the singles trophy. Ron Scarlett leads the individual standings with Rick Harden in pursuit, although a fairway behind. My standings are not up to date, however the first two places are safe for the moment.

Beau Beaumont, Paul Kirby, Dave Scutt, Pete Pickering, Ian McDonald, Terry Hancock, Mike Pepper and Danny Fraser are in, if not close to, the top ten. Gary Roda cannot be discounted, if he is available. The draw will play an important part and it will be interesting to see if someone else comes from the pack.
