

Acton fights cancer

The Acton unit of the Canadian Cancer Society held a flag raising to kick off its month long campaign Monday. Cathy Gerrow, president of the Acton unit received help from Halton Hills Mayor Russ Miller.

The society also held a dinner to kick off its "Blitz Night." Every Acton house was to be canvassed on Monday, April 2. (Herald photo)

Diamond gets a fence

By BETTY SOJKA
Ballinafad Correspondent
A practical approach to learning was used at the Monday, March 26 meeting of the 4-H's Putting Your Best Foot Forward. Each member brought a designated food. While enjoying a delicious meal, the group learned proper table manners, including setting of the table, use of silverware, and how to properly eat certain foods. The following Saturday was a fun day for the members, as they went to the home of Lisa Volmar's for a 4-H party. Members watched videos titled Working Girl, and Twins. The day was complete with a meal of pizza.

Rolls of snow fencing has arriv-mond. This will be used for an outfield fence. It is hoped that a permanent outfield fence can be erected in the near future.

Congratulations to Pat and Wayne Tucker, becoming first-time grandparents. They now have a beautiful baby granddaughter named Ashley.

Legion will honor long-service veterans

Legion Lines

J. T. HAYES
Branch 120 PRO

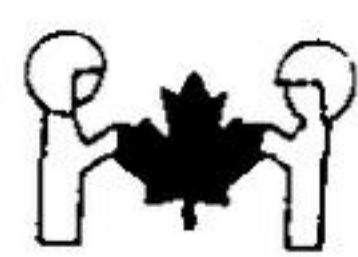

On April 21 the branch will be holding the spring honors and awards night. This is the occasion that the branch uses to show its appreciation to those who have given long service to the Legion. New members are also initiated at this time. The evening is rounded off with entertainment in the auditorium.

CAR CLUB: We have made a good start with the ticket distribution, and will have the catch-up draw as soon as the stubs are all in.

FRIDAY NIGHT EUCHRE: High lady - Susan Huckley, second - Ivy King, most lone hands - Lily Maybanks. High gent - Ila Switzer, second - Alice McDonald, most lone hands - Chuck Tutty.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON MEAT DRAW: Pauline McNeilly, P. Reyce, Marg Hodder, Jim Levy, Brian Bloxem, Fred Dean, Bill Kirk, D. Richardson, Keith Tost, Bill Kirby, Red Roshier, V. Bloxem. The roast was won by Lottie Bottoms.

The branch president, Hank Russell, has recently appointed Comrade Jim Hayes to the position of Branch Service Officer. This position, held for many years by Comrade Buster Hale, is a major challenge for Comrade Hayes, who is fortunate to have the on-going support and assistance of Comrade Hale. Veterans and or their dependants who feel that the branch service officer may be able to assist them with service pension claims or service related disabilities are invited to contact either Jim Hayes or Buster Hale. The Royal Canadian Legion provides this service to service veterans and their dependants. Legion membership is not required to take advantage of this confidential service.
