

Open Door plans to auction bachelors

The local teen drop-in center, Open Door, is planning a bachelor auction, 'A Night on the Town,' their most ambitious fundraiser ever. It will take place on May 2nd at the Club 2000 in Norval. The club seats 950 people and all proceeds from the admission fee ($10) and the auction will go straight to Open Door; the club will keep only the money made from food and drink sales.

'A Night on the Town' will open with a performance by Steve Levine, a comedian from Yuk Yuks. Then five bachelors will be auctioned off, including Mr. Levine. After this Liberty Silver will perform a set. A further five bachelors will be auctioned off, with Steve Anthony from Much Music as the second celebrity bachelor. The dates will involve dinners in and around Toronto, Brampton, and Georgetown, with the meals donated from a variety of restaurants.

Open Door's ultimate aim is to move into its own space and offer expanded hours. This fundraiser would be instrumental in helping to achieve that goal. Everyone is welcome, male or female, single or married. The bachelor auction is only one part of this evening out.

Getting There Safely

Most drivers acknowledge that the safest way to travel by auto is to first buckle up. But caught in a fast-paced schedule, too many people consider safety belts and child car safety seats a nuisance.

A survey shows that in the best cases nearly 80 percent of all drivers fail to buckle up their kids.

April 22-28 is Volunteer Week in town

In recognition of the town's volunteers the week of April 22 to 28 has been declared Volunteer Week.

Halton Hills council passed the proclamation last week. Volunteer Week in Halton Hills will correspond with National Volunteer Week 1990. The week was established for communities across the country to thank their respective volunteers, said the co-ordinator of the Halton Hills Volunteer Centre, Linda Berry, in a letter sent to the town.

The week is also meant to encourage non-volunteers to devote some time to volunteer work.

There are currently five million Canadian volunteers, Ms. Berry said.

Potential Saving		7.7 years	$ 75,863

Based on an 12% rate calculated semi-annually, not in advance.

Friendly $500 to Switch

If you already have a not-so-friendly mortgage coming up for renewal with a major bank, trust company, credit union or insurance company, it's easy to switch to our friendly mortgage. No legal fees are involved. Ask for further details. We'll handle the arrangements. In fact, if the mortgage transferred is over $20,000, we'll pay you $3 for every $1,000 of mortgage balance you transfer, up to $500. For example, if you transfer a $100,000 mortgage, we'll pay you $300.
