

Annual meeting will focus on illiteracy, May 22nd

The annual meeting of Norval W.I. was held at the home of Ann Wilson April 5 at 8 p.m. with 14 members attending. President Norina Van Leeuwen welcomed everyone and opened the meeting with a reading about "Friends" from "Each Time We Meet".

An invitation from Nelson branch to a dessert euchre at Palermo United Church April 25 at 12:30 was read. We are donating $50.00 to Georgetown Fair Board again this year. A letter from Pitch-In Ontario about their clean up week May 7-13 was read. One member stated she and her family were having to pick up plastic and paper from their farm before their cattle choked on it. Their farm borders on one more construction project.

Reports were given on various activities and workshops our members have participated in.

Guelph area W.I. is sponsoring a development workshop in Arkell United Church April 28 entitled "Facts, Figures and Forms". Norval W.I. is holding a garage sale Sat., April 28 at Norval Texaco.

A report was given of a Halton District Board meeting. Our Mae Brander will be Federation of Agriculture Representative for Halton District W.I. The district macrame workshop was a huge success.

The Federated Womens Institute of Ontario is starting training schools. The pilot project will be landscaping and bread-making. Orientation day for W.I.

members who can work at the agricultural museum this year is May 18 in Milton. Glenda Benton has requested a brief be prepared objecting to the G.S.T. on paper, magazines and books.

Special days at the Erland Lee Home are June 5 and 8, a Victorian Tea Aug. 25 and Harvest Days Oct. 3 and 4. Theme: Milk stools and butter churns.

Institute members are invited to a 4H presentation "Best Foot Forward" April 30, 7:30 p.m. in the Optimist Centre, Milton. A list of social services in each community is requested by Eric Lawlor. Eric also wants a committee in the district to deal with agriculture in the classroom. Former 4H members will be sad to hear Nancy Schmitt has retired. A.C.W.W. Day is Sunday, April 29, at Barrie Hill United Church. It will take the form of a family afternoon. The guest speaker will be Mr. George Atkins speaking on the developing countries.

District annual meeting is to be held May 22 in Hillcrest Church. The theme will be "Illiteracy".

W.I. will have a booth at the Royal Winter Fair. The theme will be "Trees and the Environment".

The Guelph Area Convention will be held at Atwood Oct. 25 and 26. This year we are to try to "Broaden Our Horizons" at this convention. Date of Halton District Fall Board meeting is Oct. 1 at 1 p.m.

Retiring President Norine Van Leeuwen thanked the speaker and continued by thanking the members for the never-ending support she had received in the past four years and stated she had enjoyed every minute of her term as their president. The ladies presented her with a beautiful piece of Original Walther-glas. Norine expressed her sincere appreciation and asked for the nominations report to be read. A strong executive was installed with committee convenors to help.

Mae Brander gave each member a copy of "The House That Grew", a story about the growth of Peel Memorial Hospital. These lovely books were very much appreciated.

Next meeting is the Market Basket at the home of Aileen Nixon, May 3 at 8 p.m.

Craft show

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent
Huttonville Craft and Antique Show and Sale had 3,600 people and the Huttonville Lions Club realized $9,000.00 for community work. Fifteen antique dealers and fifty-five craft vendors displayed their goods. An extra room was added to display paintings by three local artists, John Herrington of Georgetown, Terry McDonald of Streetsville, and Sibylle Rett of Kitchener. The tea room was well patronized with homemade pies, tarts and muffins, etc., baked by the wives of the Huttonville Lions Club members.

Euchre party

Brampton West Women's Institute annual euchre party at the Huttonville School on April 20, 7:30 p.m. Admission: $2.00. Prizes and lunch.

Baby girl

Congratulations to Catherine Kerby of Georgetown, formerly of R.R. 1, Norval, on the birth of her second granddaughter, Rebecca Arden, daughter of Ian Kerby and Lois Winstock of Thornhill, Ontario.

Get well

Get well wishes to two local people. Oliver Hunter of Georgetown has returned home from a weeks stay in Georgetown Hospital. Mrs. Emily Finamore of Norval has returned home from a two week stay in Georgetown and District Memorial Hospital.

Norval U.C.W.

The Norval United Church overall U.C.W. meeting was held at the church on April 11.

Gwen Laidlaw welcomed everyone. Dorothy McLean conducted the Easter devotion assisted by Jean Dunlop, Kay Wilson, Ethel Webb and Anne Wilson.

The U.C.W. were reminded of the special events taking place at our church:

May 5 - Garage sale and bake sale from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

May 26 - Annual Chicken Barbecue to be held at Huttonville Public School from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

May 27 - Special Outreach Church service with guest speaker Lee Holland, division of World Outreach, United Church of Canada. Lee Holland has just returned from the country of Ethiopia in Africa. Plan on attending this service to hear what the church is doing for this war-torn, drought-ridden country.

June 3 - Outdoor church service and Sunday School picnic to be held at Lynda and Fred Howses' place.

Mark your calendar and plan on attending these special events.

The guest speaker for the evening was Janet Johnson of Norval. Janet was introduced by Shirley Reed. Janet spoke to us about her experience teaching native Canadian children in Northern Ontario. Janet said that since these children have such strong support from their family, grandparents, parents and brothers and sisters that when they leave to further their education or to get a job they feel very isolated and lonely. They have an extremely difficult time coping in the outside world.

Janet was thanked by Jan Arnold and presented with a gift.

Lunch was served by the Friendship unit.

Brampton W.I.

The annual meeting of the Brampton West Women's Institute was held at the home of Mae Dixon. Mae Dixon, the president, opened the meeting with a reading about spring, the Opening Ode and The Mary Stewart Collect.

The minutes of the 1989 annual meeting were read by the secretary Mary Carbutt and approved.

Reports were presented by president Mae Dixon, treasurer Wilma Archdekin, auditor Florence Hutton, co-ordinator Isabelle McClure, public relations Ina Terry, Tweedsmuir History Wilma Archdekin, current events and Peel Memorial Hospital Auxiliary prepared by Isabel Fraser, Sunshine by Marion McClure, Peel Manor by Jean Williamson. Dorothy Ostrander installed the officers for 1990-91.

Before turning the chair over to Lois Fraser, the incoming president, Mae Dixon thanked everyone for the support she received over the past two years.

Plans were completed for the Spring Euchre to be held at Huttonville Public School April 20 at 7:30 p.m. Everyone is welcome.

The singing of Happy Birthday and a delicious birthday cake was an enjoyable ending to a pot luck lunch as the members helped Esther McClure celebrate her 91st birthday.

The May meeting will be held May 8 at the home of Charlotte McClure at 7:30 p.m.
