

Respecting the earth

Bryan Meyers (right) chooses a tree to plant for Earth Day. The day was celebrated at the Acton Quarry lookout by about 200 people on Sunday. Protect Our Water and Environmental Resources

Liberals hold politics night

John Sweeney, Minister of Housing and Municipal Affairs will be the guest speaker at the North Halton Liberal Association's annual dinner. Joining Mr. Sweeney and Walt Elliot, MPP for North Halton, will be: Shirley Collins, Minister for the Disabled, Greg Sorbara, Minister of Consumer and Commercial Relations, and Chris Ward, Minister of Government Services and the Government House Leader.

This year the event is being held on April 25 in the Sportsman's Lounge at the Mohawk Raceway on the Guelph Line north of Campbellville.

St. John's Church holding silent auction

The Spring Thankoffering meeting of St. John's U.C.W. was held in the church hall on Monday, April 16, at 6:30 p.m. commencing with dessert and coffee.

Ruth Kelly chaired the meeting. She reminded the members of the Silent Auction, Bake Sale and Yard Sale to be held on Saturday, May 5, 1990 at the church. As the U.C.W. will be convening the bake table, an appeal was made for baked items.

The members of Unit A presented a beautiful spring devotional with Diana Collett singing "In The Garden". Those taking part in the devotional were Jo Morrow, Bernice Nichols, Marion Hogan, Maddie Howat and Gail Collett.

Program Convenor Tib Runham then introduced the guest speaker, Theresa Pitman, of the Halton Children's Aid Society. Theresa told of her work with the C.A.S. and an interesting question and answer period followed her presentation.

Marion Hogan thanked the speaker on behalf of the ladies.
