Time Out No. 1 successfully defends championship

by ALEX TOUGH

Monday, Halton league play came to an end with the final matches of the 1989/1990 season and Time Out #1 again emerged as league champions, the last result being 10-4 over Time Out #2 in a fun-filled session.

A decent pile of goodies followed from owner Nick Kotsos for both squads, and several photographs were taken.

Pete Pickering shot a maximum, Alex Tough closed out 124 with Ron Scarlett closing 106 and Beau Beaumont closing 100. Pickering also fired in two 140s as did Dan Fraser and singles came from Beaumont, Tough and Scarlett. Joyce Marrows scored a fine 132 in reply.

Copper Kettle #1 entertained third place finishers O'Tooles #2 and shared the singles then lost momentum in losing the doubles and came back to share the four person teams sets. Peter Conway, Ken Baker and Rick Harden each fired in 140. Meanwhile Kettle #2 had a task to contain rampant O'Tooles #1.

Two of their three points came from winning over the 'dummy', as the house squad took ten points. Two 140s were scored by Mark See with single counters from Danny Drumm, Jon Brown and Gary Spiller.

McGibbon ladies #2 squad gave Kaspers a battle in the men's, den. Singles were tied. Doubles went to the males by 3-1 and the teams tied to give Kaspers a 8-6 win. Doug Staddon scored 180 and Roger Armstrong and Mike Compton. No score from McGibbon #1/Station House match.

Wednesday Industrial league playoffs continued. No change at the top of the first division where Gasketman Cutters retain their three point lead over Snowjacks Hustlers. Both teams lost 2-3 to their respective opposition, Westenders and Golden FLights. 'Enders move into third place with 20 points and Exports have 19 points in fourth place.

Exports come back into the picture after winning 4-1 after Steeprock. High Rollers defeated Bulldogs 3-2 and Acadian Pools won by the same score over Ensigns. This week's double head to end the playoffs should be exciting.

after their 3-2 result over Firemen. A late burst by Independents, 4-1 over Outlaws, came just too late. Power of Pain round out the results with a 3-2 win over luckless Bandits, who finish without a win. Gord Bottoms fired 180. Cam Levers shot four starts, one of 160 and one of 105. 140's were scored by Ian McDonald, Brian Hicks, Rob Poyner (who also opened with 112), Pete Pickering as highlights. Eric Fuller, Jim Franks and Bruce Capreol fired 120 each. Joe Poirier's 126 came from 7 x18s. Jim Charter scored 116, Laurie Hopkins 115 and two tons. Rod Beaumont opened with 106 and

George Powell scored 112. At the Legion provincial championships Ron Scarlett and Beau Beaumont reached the quarter-finals in doubles before bowing out to the eventual winners from Highland Creek, John and Frank Rushbrook. The Rushbrooks defeated highly fancied (co-favorites) Alan Hogg, and Peter Scott, Canadian Internationals 2-1 in the final. Guess who played Hogg and Scott - yes, Dennis Thorogood and self. We lost 1-2, the only team to take a set until the final from the combination. Apart from reaching the quarters, Beaumont and Scarlett defeated the co-favorites, Dan Olson, world ranked no less, and his talented brother Guy, in the opening round. The P.A. system was not too great and identification of players and branches was made easier by the players shirts, except for a few, ours included. It would have been good for us to have been so clad but we were not. It can be intimidating to come up against a well turned-out team, in any sport, and usually proves to be the case. However, we did ourselves, and the branch, proud with some impressive darts throughout the tourney.
