

Mosquito alert!

The environmental troupe "Ruckus in the Rainforest" performed at Acton High School during Earth Week. The players want to use theatre to educate and motivate people to action on the environment. Here,

Get 'Back to Acton' June 23

The Infamous Black Bart is preparing to challenge all comers to the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce's "Back To Acton Days" celebration.

Black Bart, also known as Jim Flett, is returning from last year's Fall Fair to take on all quick-draw artists that dare challenge him.

The event is being sponsored by the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, the Acton BIA and the Olde Hide House. The celebration will take place at Prospect Park June 23.

The day will start with a fishing derby in Fairy Lake at 8 a.m. The cost to enter is $5 per adult or $2.50 per child under 12 years of age.

During the day there will be a remote control plane demonstration, a horseshoe tournament and a selection of cruise cars. The cars will be of all vintages and varieties. People are being asked to bring cars they want to show with them.

A hot-air balloon will also be at the park.

Youngsters will be able to go on pony rides, have their face painted, get balloons and drive remote-control cars in races.

T-shirts will be on sale and for those with good aim a Dunking Machine will be set up.

Musical entertainment will be provided by the Acton Citizen's Band and Tom Destry.

The ambulance, fire department and police will be on hand to demonstrate and show their equipment.

For people who enjoy munching on the finest cuisine; hamburgers, hot dogs and a beef barbecue will be there to tempt palettes. The beer tent will also serve soft drinks.
