

Sun bathing

Bathing in the sun is POWER's Nadia Noack of Limehouse during the giant garage sale at the old town hall on Trafalgar Road on Saturday. POWER, the group organized to fight the Acton landfill proposal, hoped to beat last year's figure of $8,000 raised at the sale. POWER members reported good support from the community at the sale. # United Church has 112th anniversary

By BETTY SOJKA

Five visitors joined members of the United Church Women when they visited Cedar Glen Retreat, recently. Reverend Judith McGilvry led a bible discussion on Resurrection. After enjoying a delicious buffet lunch, some ventured out into the cold and windy day, for a nature walk. The U.C.W. Annual Rummage Sale is slated for May 19. Keep this date circled on your calendar, as there is always something for everyone. This upcoming Sunday, May 6, the Ballinacfad United Church is celebrating its 112th anniversary.

Mrs. Linda Mitchell has been enjoying the pleasure of her mother, Mrs. Eunice Peasley's visit, for the past week. Mrs. Peasley hails from the Eastern Townships, and had come up to see her granddaughter in the farewell concert given by the Erin District High School Choir and Band on Friday, April 20. Her granddaughter has now left with a group of about 85 including chaperones, to Germany, where they will give concerts, as well as sight-see.

The parking lot at the community center is now completed. Freshly gravelled, thanks to J.C. Duff, who very kindly donated several loads of gravel. The lot is looking very lovely, and very much enlarged. The children's playground equipment is to arrive in the next week or so. Jim Bailey will be coordinating the construction of it. He has also been consigned by the Hall Board to build picnic tables for the park. The park will be taking shape in the next few weeks, as a nice place for families to take pleasure in.
