

Kinsmen T.V. Auction raises over $10,000

The largest audience in its six-year history tuned in and got the message at Monday's Kinsmen's Television Auction on Halton Cable 4.

The auction raised a total of $10,022. Ms. Thompson of Acton made a bid on a dinner for two gift certificate and won a 21-inch color television courtesy of Zellers.

During the auction the Canadian Cystic Fibrosis Foundation were given a $3,000 cheque from the Kinsmen organization. Starting at the top left and going clockwise, Pam Murray and Claire Gourlie accepted the cheque on behalf of the C. F. Foundation. Jack Walinga and Kinsmen president, Jim Crichton presented the cheque.

Bryan Whittaker dealt with Visa and Mastercard bids. Sheryl Savage took phone bids and answered questions about bids while monitoring the high bids. Bruce Maclean and Randy Schaefer kept updating the high bids as the auction continued.
