Longhorns post two wins as flag football season opens

 The Georgetown Men's Flag Football League kicked-off its 1990 regular season Sunday at the Georgetown District High School grounds, and once again, that old cliché "the more things change, the more they remain the same," held true.

The league will be operating with nine teams this season with games played every Sunday (except for long weekends) at GDHS through Aug. 26th.

The nine team loop necessitated some schedule juggling and each league team will be required to play two games twice on slated Sundays.

Kaspers has taken over sponsorship of the former Muscle Works squad while Meznic Electric has taken over sponsorship of Dairy Queen.

Despite the cosmetic changes, defending league champion, Longhorns, proved once again they will be the team to beat by posting two wins (43-12 over M and M Pro Sports and 24-22 over Karry Kitchens) in opening-day action.

In other games, Meznic Electric blanked Plus Welding, 27-0; the Glen thumped the Oldtimers 34-6 and Kaspers spooked the Corrigan Dawgs 30-6.

LONGHORNS 43

M and M PRO SPORTS 12

M and M fielded a host of newcomers, while Longhorns came back with virtually the same lineup that captured last year's league title and basically, experience won-out over enthusiasm.

Longhorns led 20-6 at the half then outscored M and M 23-6 in the final half to post the comfortable 43-12 win.

Bob Davey scored two touchdowns and chipped in with an interception for the winners with Wayne Doell, Mark Hamilton, Bob Hamilton and Paul Allison counting Longhorn majors.

Dave (Haggis) Paterson bootet five converts and added a single to round-out the Longhorns scoring.

Mark McKeon and Mark Shepard scored the M and M Pro Sports touchdowns.

Sean Teiar and Gord McNeilly had interceptions for M and M Pro Sports.

LONGHORNS 24

KARRY KITCHENS 22

The Longhorns were very lucky to escape with two points against a plucky Karry Kitchens squad as a combination of over-confidence and fatigue almost caused the eventual winners to be upset.

Karry Kitchens led 15-7 at the half, but Longhorns regrouped to outscore Karry Kitchens 17-7 in the decisive second half, to eke out the win.

Bob Davey again had two touchdowns for the Longhorns, Gary Hulbert added a major, while Dave Paterson kicked three converts and added a field goal.

Wendell Murray had two touchdowns for Karry Kitchens with Chris Calleja also romping for six points.

Anthony Oram kicked two converts and Karry Kitchens had a two-point safety to round-out their scoring.

MEZNIC ELECTRIC 27

PLUS WELDING 0

The former Dairy Queen outfit showed the talent to be a contender for league honors once again, while Plus Welding is still unsettled at the quarterback position.

Meznic had a surprisingly slim 11-0 halftime lead en route to the comfortable 27-0 win.

The Lockwood brothers carried the main scoring load for the winners with Ken Lockwood counting eight scoring points, Gary Lockwood scoring a touchdown and Jeff Lockwood kicking a field goal.

Jeff Lockwood also had an interception.

Lloyd Mieczanec had a major for the winners, with Stu Lunn and Rob Spittieri each adding two-point converts.

GLEN 34, OLDTIMERS 6

The Glen squad showed little sympathy for the outgunned oldtimers and led 22-0 at the half on the way to the 34-6 thumping.

Sean McQuarrie paced the Glen attack scoring two touchdowns and kicking three converts.

Mark Waters scored two majors for the winners with Greg Lawr also crossing the goalline.

Darryl Weir added a single scoring point.

Paul Martin scored the lone Oldtimers touchdown.

KASPERS 30, CORRIGAN 6

Mitch LeBlanc switched teams to quarterback Kaspers this season and his strong arm guided his squad to the win.

Corrigan was without its first-string quarterback, Pat McKinnon for the first half and this played a major role in the eventual outcome.

Kaspers led 16-0 at the half en route to the lop-sided win.

Louis DePauli and Brad Finucan each scored majors for the winners. DePauli also had a single off a missed field goal while Bruce Canary counted a two-point convert.

Wayne Smith scored the lone Corrigan major.

Upcoming Games (May 12)
