Five Ways to Pay for your Renovation

1 PowerLine Financing
PowerLine is a pre-approved loan over $10,000 that you can instantly draw on as you need it. You can borrow at PRIME, up to 2/3 of the appraised value of your home less any existing mortgage, when you use the equity in your home as collateral.*
You only pay interest as you draw your money, which is an ideal way to pay for renovations as they progress.
Your entire PowerLine can be accessed by cheque or credit card.
Unsecured lines are available from $10,000 to $50,000, while lines secured by equity in your home are available up to $250,000; in some cases even more.

2 Top-up Financing
Transfer your mortgage to Canada Trust. Then we'll increase it up to 75% of the current appraised value of your home. This option offers you our lowest rate.
Canada Trust Friendly Mortgages are the most flexible around. Plus, each month we burn a customer's mortgage.

4 Personal Loans
We also offer a full range of personal loans that can be paid off at any time.

5 Win your Renovation
Apply for your renovation financing at Canada Trust from April 16 to Dec. 31, 1990, and you'll receive an opportunity to win one of five $20,000** cash prizes to be put towards your renovation.

Friendly, Helpful Service
Financing your home renovations requires careful planning. We can do a number of "what if" scenarios to tailor a plan that fits your personal needs.
You'll find Canada Trust people friendly and helpful. For your convenience most branches are open 8 to 8 Monday to Friday, and 9 to 5 on Saturdays. Check the white pages for the location nearest you.

3 Tag-on Financing
If you have to leave your existing first mortgage where it is, then consider taking out an additional Canada Trust Friendly Mortgage. The interest rates are lower than personal loans and you'll be entered into our monthly mortgage burning draw. When your existing mortgage comes up for renewal at another major financial institution we'll pay you up to $500 to transfer it to Canada Trust. Ask for details.
