Ladies football league underway

By LEANNE FOURNIER
 Herald Special
 The Georgetown Ladies Flag Football League started its seventh season of play on Sunday, a little older and a lot wiser. The league continues to be a thrill to watch and a source of surprise for several of the men who didn't realize the athletic abilities of some of their counterparts. Burns Transport thumped Arnies Body Shop in what looked like a great imitation of sleepwalking for 60 minutes. The final tally for Burns was 27 while Arnies posted the big 00. Mobile Sound System (formerly Avia) tackled a refreshed West Insurance (formerly Corrigan) as they battled to a six-all stalemate. The George and Dragon slayed a Fournier-less Ferg's Flicks squad by a score of 30-26 in the final matchup of the day. Burn's Transport appears to have unearthed a gem in newcomer Sheri Nairn. Nairn posted an interception, two field goals, a touchdown, and three singles in her first appearance as a Bullfrog. Donna Davey and Kyra Kristensen-Irvine had the other TD's for Burn's while Pres. Sandra Cousens snapped up an interception to ensure the victory. Arnie's defence put forth a valiant effort but their offence was incapable of sustaining a drive. Mobile Sound System had their cage rattled as they were lucky to come out of this game with a tie. Mighty Michele Keese grabbed an interception which set the wheels in motion for a touchdown run for Tammy McLaughlin. Late in the fourth quarter, Mobile Sound got on the scoreboard with a touchdown by Sandy Brownridge (1989 Rookie of the Year). Brownridge also capped off the day with an interception. The final matchup of the day saw reigning champs Ferg's Flicks take on the mighty George and Dragon (formerly Lett's Dive). This has traditionally been a shootout from the opening kickoff and this contest was no different. Marg Walinga started things off for Ferg's as she pulled in an interception which later turned into a Walinga touchdown and a Mastalerz single. George and Dragon then pulled ahead with the help of the Waters connection, Donna for the TD and Kathy for the convert. The Dragon's increased their lead with a Denean Jones TD. Kathy Waters found herself with another 2 pt. convert. This seesaw battle ended with two touchdowns for Kathleen Lenvey and a 2 pt. convert for Karen Brush of the Dragon's. Marg Walinga posted two more TD's for Ferg's Flicks while Nancy Hamilton had one. The difference in this game was Ferg's 2 singles versus the Dragon's three 2 pt. converts. JV Jets had the week off as Rockwell had dropped out of the league. Games are played every Sunday at the Georgetown District High School grounds starting at 9 a.m.
