

See rural past at Agricultural Museum

Special events, activities, exhibits and displays offer visitors insight into Ontario's rich rural past at the Ontario Agricultural Museum. The 1990 season begins May 22.

"Children young and old will enjoy discovering the sights and sounds of rural Ontario which are brought to life throughout the 32 hectare outdoor site," says Dorene Collins, Promotions and Public Relations Co-ordinator at the Museum.

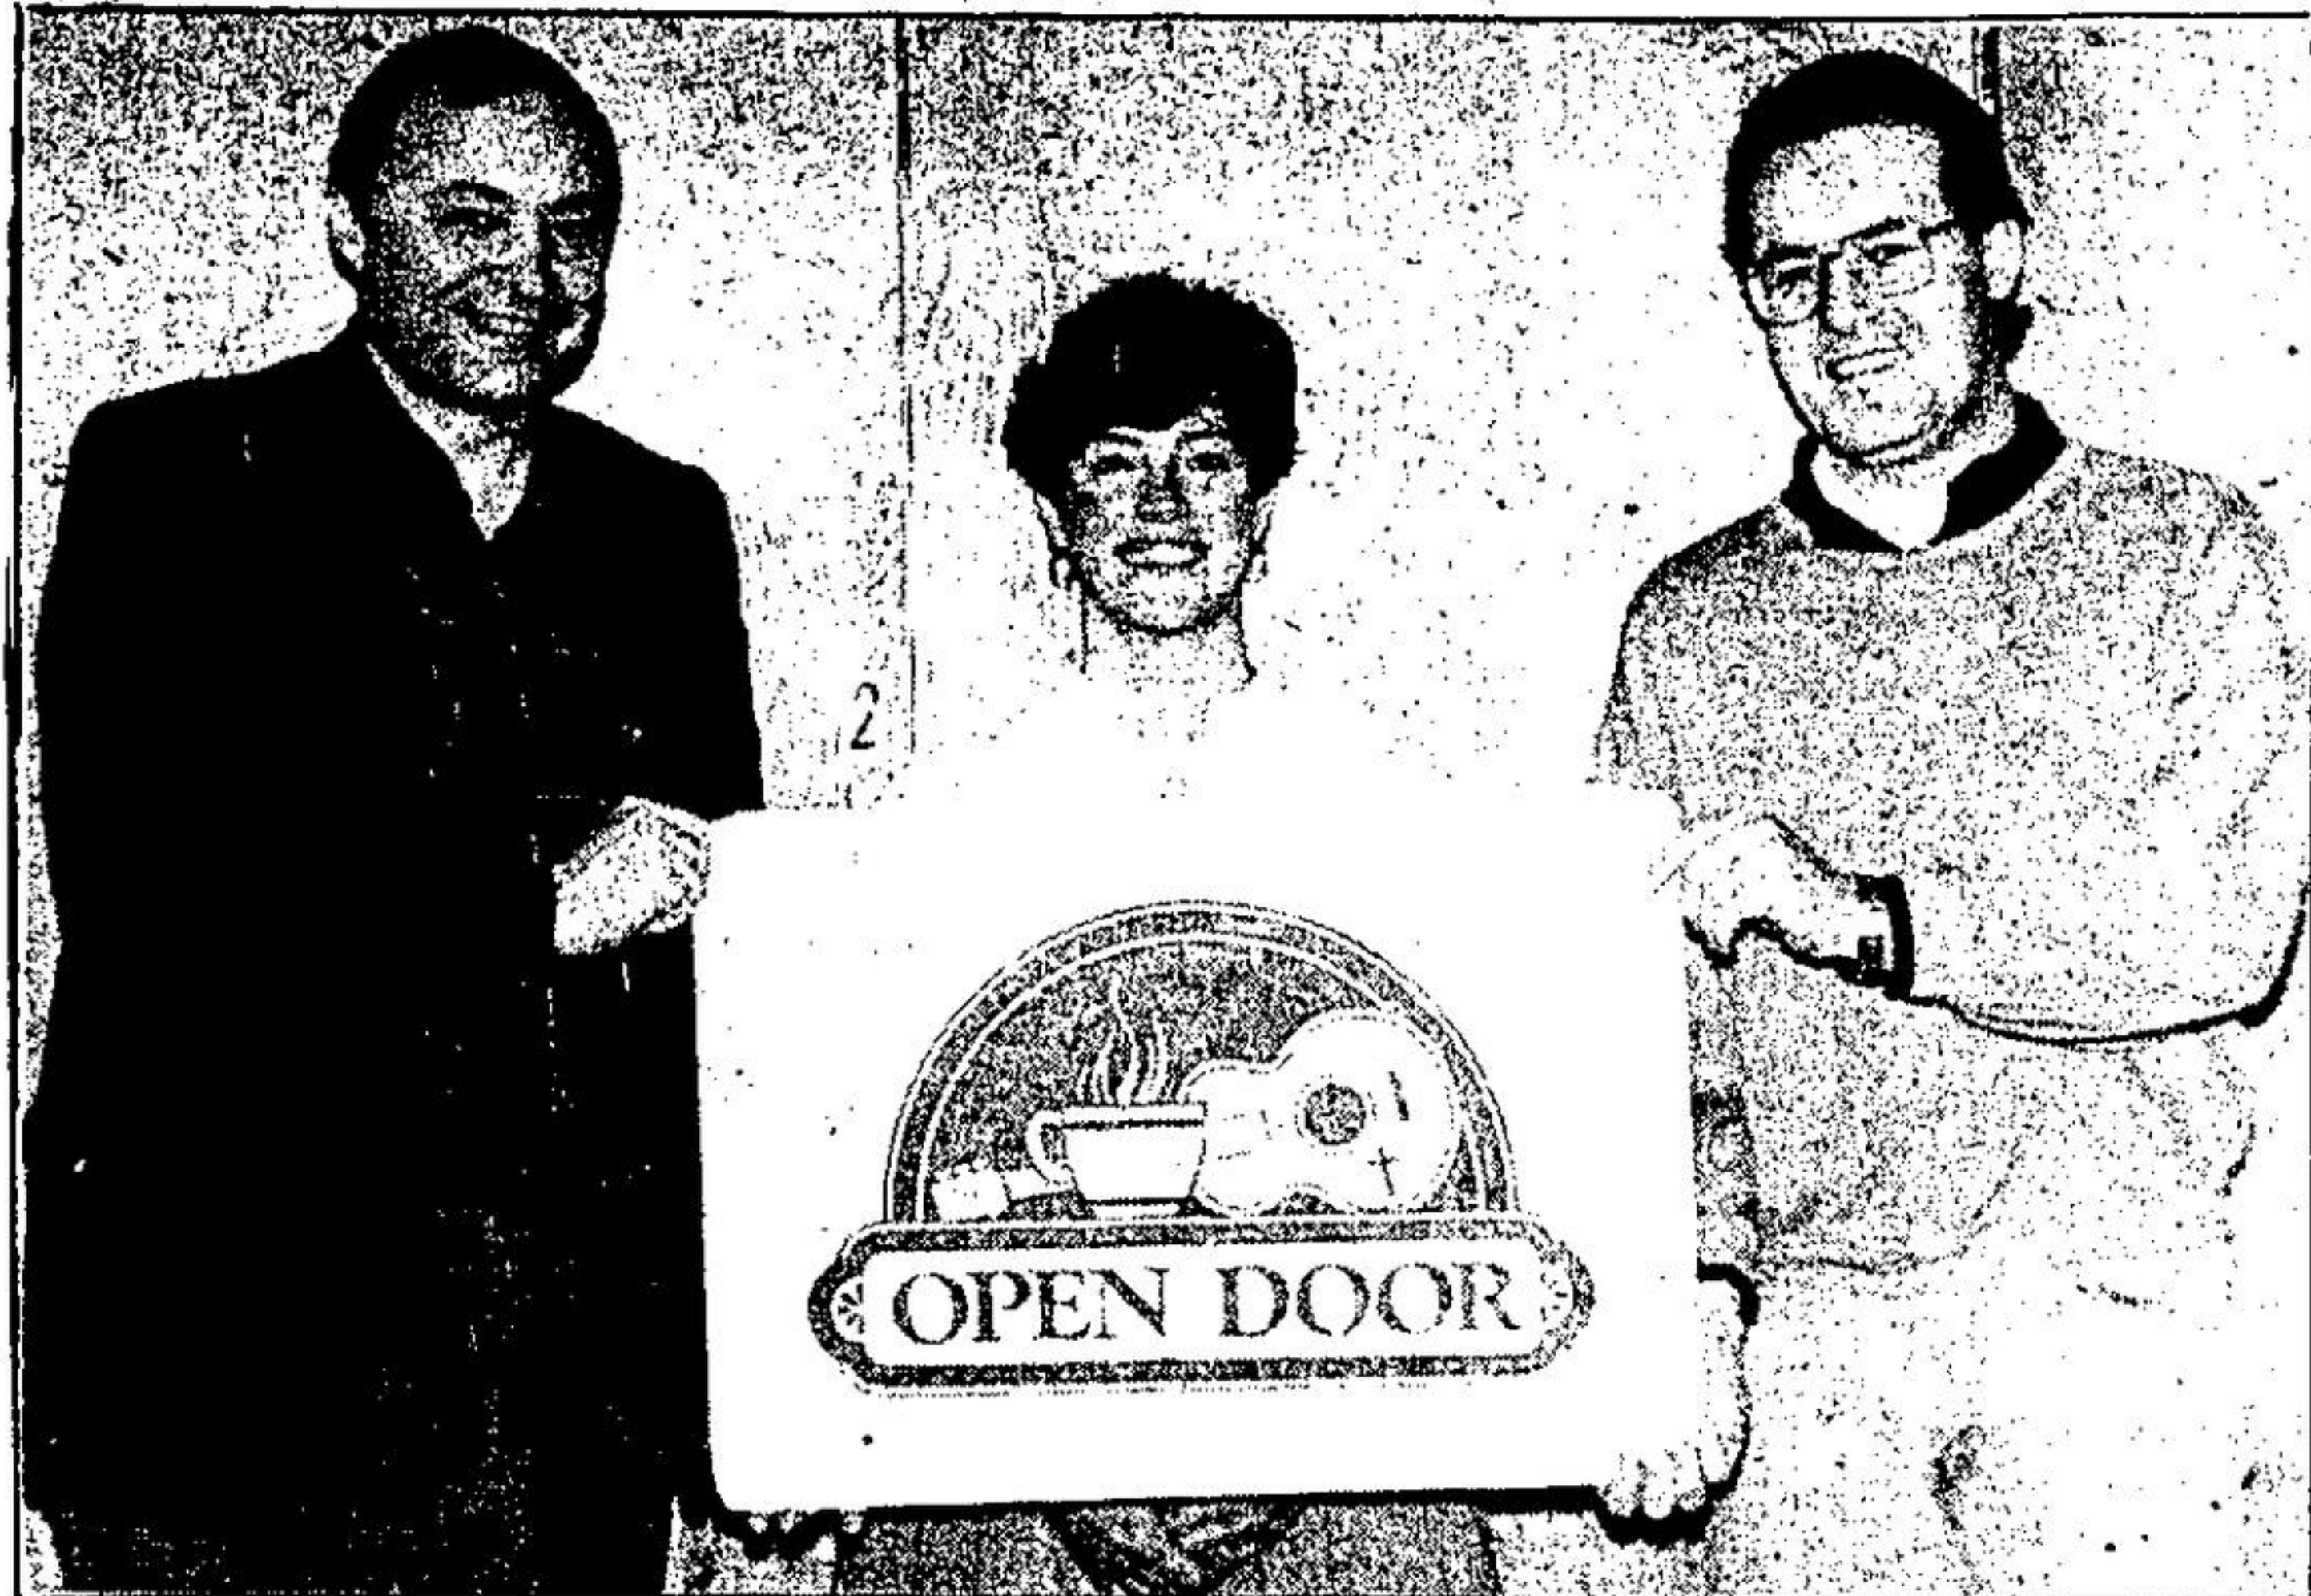

Costumed interpreters performing daily demonstrations, farm animals, tractor-drawn wagon rides make for a fun-filled day in the country.

On the activity roster this year, a total of eight events will take place. New this season will be the Museum's "Meet The Artist" event featuring one of Canada's well-known artists, Peter Etril Snyder of Waterloo. In addition, the Museum is celebrating Seniors' Month by offering a special program for seniors June 11 to 15.

The Museum is open from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. daily, May 22 to September 23. Admission rates include: adults $3, youths (ages 6 to 17) $1.50, seniors $1.50 (except during Seniors' Day), family $7.50, group rates also apply.

Located 5 km west of Milton, the Museum can be reached from Highway 401 via exit 320 or 312 north and follow the signs.

New Open Door board

The new board of directors for Open Door, which runs a teen drop-in centre and Young Mothers program in Georgetown, was elected at the organization's annual general meeting Saturday at the St. George's Church in Georgetown. This year's board of

Halton Hills - get ready to put on your running shoes because the week of May 25 to June 1 is recognized at Canada's Fitweek.

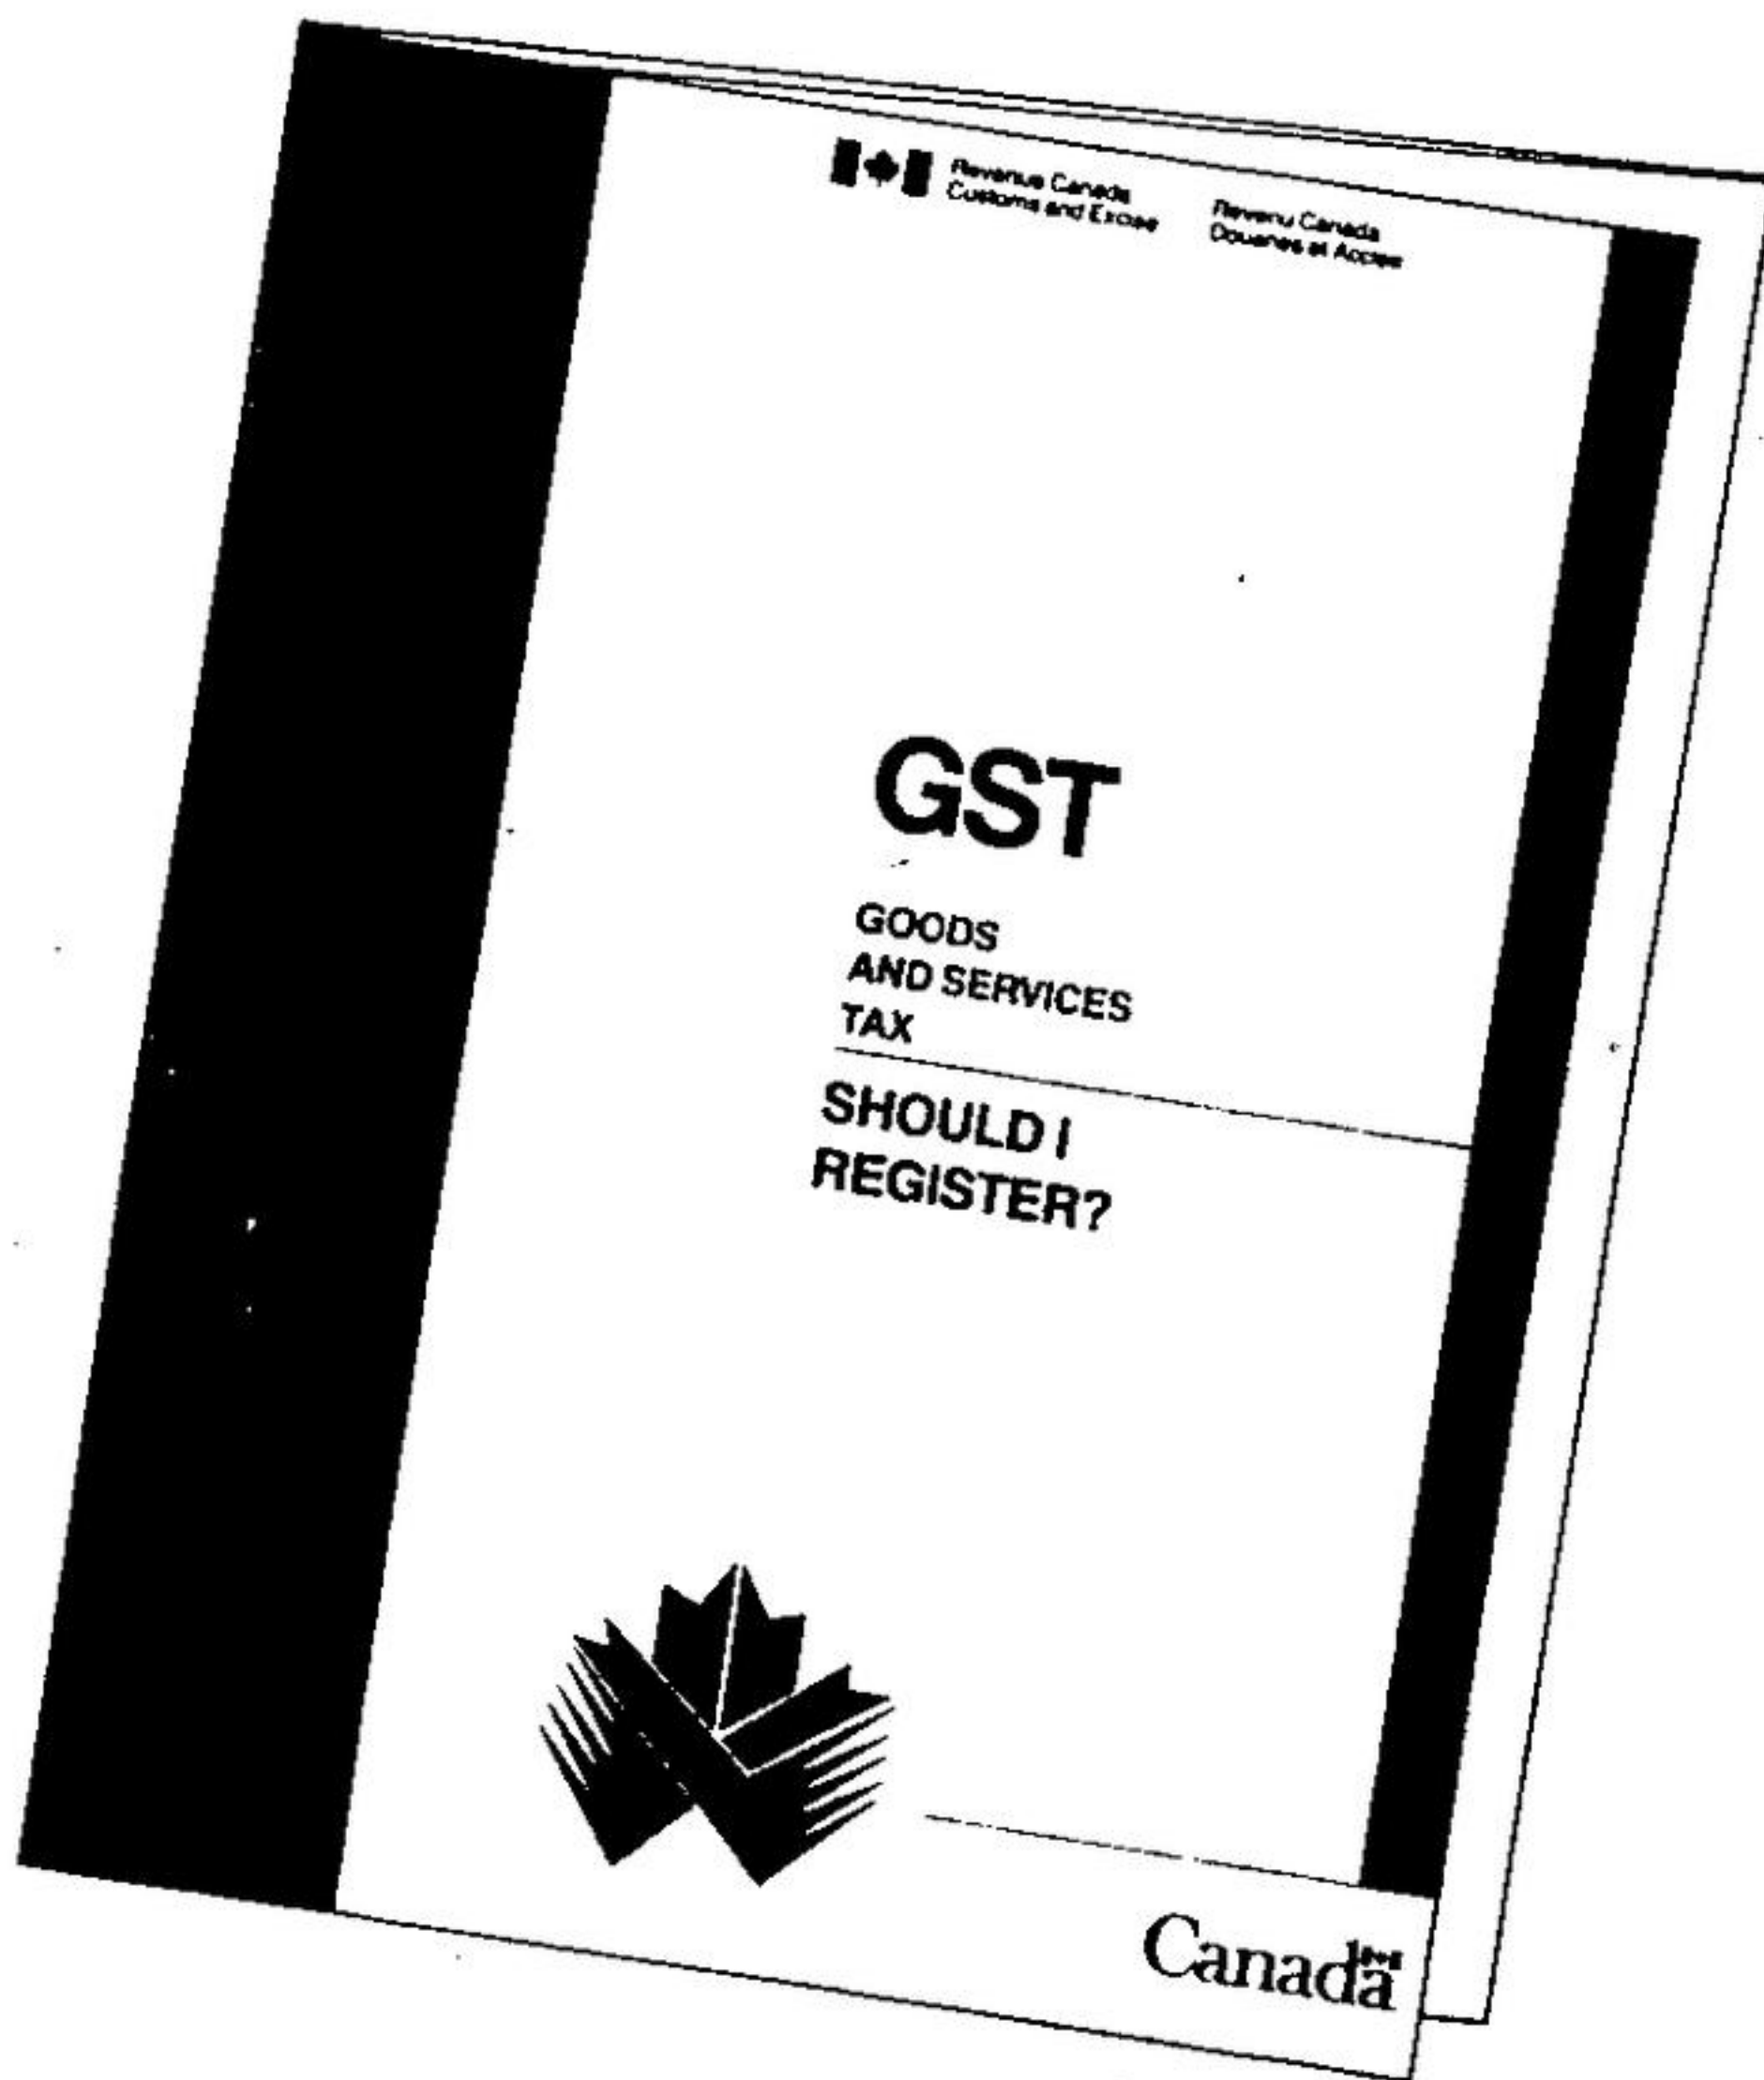

The week is an annual event to celebrate physical activity and healthy living.

The province's minister of tourism and recreation wants people across the country to kick off the week by putting on their sneakers Friday May 25, recognizing "Sneakers Day." All municipalities will be holding special events on this day.
