Euchre party

By KAY WILSON
Norval Correspondent

A presentation for a bridal couple, combined with a birthday celebration and final euchre of the season, was held on May 14 at the Pinegrove Community School.

The presentation was held for Glenda (Feikema) and Ravi Araniyasundaran, in honor of their last Nov. 18 wedding. The first part of the evening was spent playing euchre, followed by the presentations, chaired by vice-president Bill Brander. The address was read by Kay Wilson, and a swag lamp and crystal bowl were presented by Prairie Bessey and Irene Hunter.

Thanks were expressed by the couple, and a beautiful pot luck buffet was enjoyed including cold cuts, salads and cherry cheese cake. Then Ethel Webb was surprised when Mae Brander placed a birthday cake in front of her and all sang Happy Birthday.

Winners for euchre were Hillie Feikema, Jean Wilson, Heather Feikema and Bill Brander. Lucky draw courtesy Webbs Flowers was won by our recent bride, Glenda Araniyasundaran.

Visiting in PEI

Herbert and Polly Jones of P.E.I. are visiting with Polly's sister, Marion Laird of Norval, and along with her sister Anita Webb of the Bennett Health Care Centre, Georgetown, attended Ethel Webb's birthday party at the home of Keith and Ethel Webb of Norval.

80th birthday

Congratulations to Ethel Webb on her 80th birthday when three occasions recognized her birthday. Pinegrove Community Club's final euchre party of the season on May 14 finished off their social hour when Mae Brander carried a birthday cake to Ethel and all sang Happy Birthday. The staff at Webb's Flowers surprised Ethel with a birthday cake for their Friday afternoon break.

Birthday party

On May 20, following the morning church service of Norval United, Beth Laidlaw and Jean Dunlop presented a birthday cake to Ethel and embers sang the Birthday Song, followed by a social hour of birthday cake and coffee.

Again on Sunday, May 20, 2-4 p.m., her family hosted an open house. Over 50 relatives, friends, neighbors, church and Norval Women's Institute members called to extend their best wishes. Her family of Ernie and Kathy Webb of Pickering, Jack and Ina Reed of Georgetown, Glen and Marion Webb of Norval, and Gwen and John Pawlikowski of Guelph hosted the guests. Grandchildren Sandy, Leanne, Shane, Andrea and Cori, Shannon, Noel and Katelyn assisted in serving. Keith and Ethel Webb have been operating Webbs Flowers for 44 years.

40th birthday

Congratulations to Lloyd and Ella Laidlaw, R.R.2 Norval, on their 40th wedding anniversary. Their family entertained at an open house in their parent's home on May 20 for around 200 guests. Their family includes Brenda Kistner of Acton, Larry and his wife Heather of Norval, Shelly and her husband Patrick Cameron of Fergus and Kathy and her husband Jack Hamilton of Norval. Eight grandchildren were with their parents to assist with the happy day. Special guest was Lloyd's mother, Catherine Laidlaw. A mixed barbershop quartet sang many numbers during the afternoon including daughter Brenda Kistner of Acton, John Wilkie of Guelph and Margaret and Paul Tamplin of Fergus.

Special guests were Lloyd's mother Catherine Laidlaw, and brothers Roy of Norval and Ralph of Willowdale. Also Ella's two brothers Oscar and Rodney and Bob of Toronto and sister Birdella Frieson of Toronto, Florence Moore of Brampton and Teresa Geoff of Elora.

Norval barbecue

Don't forget Norval United Church Annual Chicken B.B.Q. on May 26, 4-8 p.m. at the Huttonville Community Centre. It features Maple Lodge chicken, homemade salads and pies. Tickets in advance $6.50 and at the gate $7.50. Children under 12 years $4.50. Another plus is Iva Davidson's toe-tipping music. Ticket info is available at 877-8836 or 826-7337.

Veteran dies

Sincere sympathy is extended to the family of Jim Montgomery who passed away at Peel Memorial Hospital Brampton on May 15 in his 70th year. Beloved husband of Marion (nee Humphrey) and proud father of Tom and his wife Judy of Alberta, and Lynn and her husband Jim Schneider of Nobleton. Loving grandfather of Amy and Gary Montgomery and Leslie and Michel Schneider. Jim will be sadly missed by his brother Tom and sisters Marjorie, Beatrice and Susan, and sisters-in-law Louise McCallum, Enid Dolson and Lois Humphrey.

Funeral service was from the Ward Funeral Home, Brampton, on Tuesday, May 17. Pallbearers were John Humphrey, Donald Evans, Kevin McAuley, Harold McDonald, Lloyd Bryan and Jim Bryce. Cremation followed.

Jim was a retired Dehavlind Downview worker, a Second World War veteran with the R.A.F., also Legion Branch 15, and a member of Royal Orange Lodge No. 5.

Both the Legion and Lodge held their service Wednesday evening. Jim's wife Marion was a former RR2 Norvalite. Her family, the Humphreys, were long time farmers on the farm now owned by Bill and Paul Laidlaw.

Chimney fire brings firemen out twice

Halton Hills Fire Department had a quiet long weekend and were called on only twice to the same location.

A chimney fire at Lot 21, Concession 4 brought firefighters out at 4:55 p.m. May 20.

There was no damage to the home at this time but firefighters were once again called to the scene at 7:35 p.m. because the residents believed there was a fire behind the fireplace.

Firefighters pulled the fireplace apart to check for a fire but found nothing.

An estimated $1,000 damage occurred at the scene.
