

Sports Outlook

COLIN GIBSON - Herald Sports Editor

Youth bowlers rewarded for popping pins

The Y.B.C. Pee wee League Champs got together once more at the awards night held at the Georgetown Bowl. The team includes (from left to right) Ken Vidler, Robert Brigden, Joshua Sweeting, Cory Latimer, Eric King and Jason Dicks.

Showing their Y.B.C. trophies; (front row, left to right), Chris Somers the high average senior's champ, Robert Harrison the high triple senior's champ, (back row, left to right) Tracy Ball the high girls senior's champ and Christina Lane the high female singles champ, put on smiles for the camera. (Herald photo)

Pinning down their Y.B.C. Pee wee trophies, from left to right: Richard Goslin, Sara Pegg, Brendan Louth, Lindsay Edmunds, Gordon Everett and Cathy Schaefer present their prizes for the camera. The six won trophies ranging from high average to high single to high triple categories. (Herald photo)

The Smurf Division Y.B.C. trophy winners were awarded their prizes at an awards night held by the Georgetown Bowl. From left to right: Natalie Laroque won the High Triple Trophy, Gordon Clarke won the High Average Trophy and Alex Foster won the High Single Trophy. (Herald photo)

These Y.B.C. Bantam bowlers certainly know their stuff. They proved this by winning the following trophies; (from left to right) the high boys average was won by Matthew Walker, the high girls average was won by Monica Beaupriant, the high boys triple was won by David Pegg, the high girls triple was won by Lynn Moreland, the high boys single was won by Paul Laroque and the high girls single was won by Lynn Dales. (Herald photo)

The three Y.B.C. play-off Smurf Division winners hold onto their medals. The trio of champs were awarded at the Georgetown Bowl awards night. From left to right: Jason Pshyk, Melissa Kane and Jeanna Brigden put on their best smiles for the camera. (Herald photo)