Ballinafad hosts 3-pitch tournament

By BETTY SOJKA
Ballinafad Correspondent

Mother Nature blessed the village with some weather this past weekend which added to the success of the Mixed 3-Pitch Tournament. Eight teams competed for prize money and trophies. One of the highlights of the tournament was when the two Ballinafad home-town teams made up of locals, played against each other. It was a fun game, each wanting to beat the other team. Fans were torn as to who to cheer for. The Jim Dandies came out the winner, and went on to clinch the consolation round on Sunday, when they played the Hillsburgh Firefighters. Twin-Cee won the championship of the tournament.

Fans filled the park on Sunday afternoon to watch the two championship games. Twin-Cee and the Jim Dandies will have their names put on the corresponding trophies, which will be displayed at the community center.

It was a full weekend of work for the Hall Board who could not have managed without the help of some wonderful people such as Linda Dorrell and Marg Barrie who were the official scorekeepers. Jim Bailey spent a tremendous amount of time organizing the tournament which meant soliciting teams, making up the schedules, printing up applications and rules, and overseeing the games themselves. Marlene Burnett, Jennifer and Mike Buckley, Alan Attard were an immense help, as they cooked the hamburgers and hotdogs, and lots of odd jobs. Hank Burnett and Bruno Carnelos were irreplaceable as bartenders. Numerous volunteers umpired the baseball games.

Many were delighted at the Grand Slam Dance when D.J. George and S and S Sound provided the crowd with lights complete with a dry ice mist effect. The music was varied to accommodate the different age groups attending. All were number one hits with the dancers. The Hall Board wishes to thank everyone for their support.

The Jim Dandies came up with a loss last week when Random Car Club beat them by one run. Cindy Cee hit a lovely home run. Vera Longstreet and Sandra Pride were the pitchers for the game. A couple of run-away innings was the demise of the Jim Dandies who could not get the bats going to get the runs back.
