

Air Cadets inspection

Who chooses cremation?

Last year in Ontario almost 30% of families and individuals chose cremation as a step in the commemorative process. Our experience has been that many people from all faiths, of all ages, and from all walks of life, express a preference for cremation. If you would like to know more about cremation as an option, call us, or send in the coupon. Better still, drop in for a visit with your questions. We do not have commissioned salespeople. Our trained service counsellors can explain cremation and all of your commemorative options in an environment free of pressure.

Please send me more information on cremation.

Picnic set to raise funds for Harmony Bull

Harmony Bull, a 16-year-old Georgetown girl was critically injured in a recent car accident which killed her mother and sister.

Harmony is progressing well, and to help her on the road to recovery, citizens from the community of Halton Hills are pulling together for a fund-raising picnic. Many of the items have been generously donated by Neilson's, Maple Lodge Farms, Miss Vickies Chips, Work That Body Fitness Programs Inc., Cheri Lindsay's Dance Studio and the Blue Fins Swim Team.

Should you wish to contribute in any way call Laurie Burns at 877-0771.

Please attend "A Picnic For Harmony." Let's get behind her and help her put her life back together. Tickets can be purchased at Work That Body Fitness Programs Inc., 232 Guelph Street, Georgetown.
