The Commanchero Kid, will be the fastest gun in Georgetown during Pioneer Days, June 15 and 16. He's ready to take on all comers.

Commanchero Kid will take on all comers at Pioneer Days

The wild west is once again coming to the downtown core of Georgetown, June 15 and 16.

Pioneer Days is an annual event put on by the Georgetown Business Improvement Area and this year's feature attraction is "Fast Gun Challenge."

The "Commanchero Kid," alias Andy Kwiraunt, will be on hand Saturday on Main Street in Georgetown to take on any would-be gunslingers, men and women, said the event's coordinator, Margaret Vint.

Mr. Kwiraunt is an Oakville resident, who is a stuntman, ex-rodeo rider, gunslinger, actor and vice-president of Wild West Productions.

Other attractions that fit in with the wild west theme said Ms. Vint, are "The Cowboy with the Golden Voice" (Barry Feener), Tumbleweed Jones and his faithful companion "Becky" and pony rides.

All activities happen on Main Street, said Ms. Vint. And some of the other highlights include the Lions Club Pioneer Breakfast, a giant sidewalk sale, a performance by the Halton Hills Gymnastic Club and the presentation of the Halton Hills Herald's Pioneer Citizen Award.
