Belamys Challengers 1, United Glass Milton 0
 Again Georgetown did not back off from the larger Milton team. Two household names in Ontario soccer - Marsha and Paula from Milton only broke through the Belamy's Challengers team defense on a couple of occasions.

Kim Migner scored an opportunistic goal and Cathy Paul had some timely runs - the team hung on for the 1-0 win. Noteworthy players - Yvonne Moore, Kim Mizner and Tracy Rehberg.

Milton Consumers Glass 3 Georgetown Lions 1
 Very good game against the tough Milton team but the team never gave up.

Scoring the lone goal for the Lions was Tracy Fowler.

Noteworthy players - Shannon Morris (excellent goalie deserves a lot of credit), Deanna Guignard and Marcy McInnis.

Acton 3, Brew Crew 2
 A good game. Once again Georgetown played short-handed with only 10 players to the Acton 14. Georgetown's goals were scored by Darby Erler and Lail Morgan.

Excellent defensive work by Tanya McMaster, Andrea

Schneider and Stephanie O'Brien. But time and tiredness took the toll as the lone forwards, Angel Hughes, Lorraine Mann, Darby Erler and Cara Gogan, although they played hard, soon ran out of time as Acton won 3-2. Noteworthy players - Angel Hughes, Andrea Schneider and Stephanie O'Brien.

McLaren award winner

CINDY KALLO was the recipient of the McLaren Award at the GDHS athletic awards evening, presented by Rick Redshaw. The McLaren Award is presented annually to the student who has contributed the most to the GDHS athletic program as an all-round performer. The award winner must not only compete, where able, but must take an active part as a manager and intramural sports program participant. (Herald photo)

Sabre pipeline pumping

who competed for Canada's national peewee team; Steve Pelletier, from Hearst, a second-year midget and Thomas Carrier, from Kapuskasing, also a second-year midget player and Sabre owner, Mitch Lajeunesse. The three Northern Ontario hockey hopefuls took part in the Georgetown Raiders tryout sessions held last weekend at the Meadowvale 4 rinks complex. (Herald photo)

Kentners an early season hit

By DEE DEE HAYNES
 Herald Special
 INTERMEDIATE
 May 25

Kentner's Dairy Bar started the Intermediate season off with a bang as they defeated Elk's Lodge 29-7. Kentner's pitchers were Kim Brown, Paula Walsh, and Wanda Brown. Game stars were Brooke Maclean and Dione Benito of Elks and Kim Brown of Kentners.

May 31
 Elks Lodge had a much better showing as they defeated the Optimists 18-17. Tracy Green held the mound for the Optimists throughout the game. Game stars were Kelly Campbell and Faydra Goodlet of Elk's Lodge and Tanya Osborne of Optimists.

Even though Dairy Queen had last week to rest, as they defeated Optimists by default, this week Kentner's Dairy Bar extended their winning streak to two games as they defeated Dairy Queen 24-22. The entire Dairy Queen team was named game stars while Andrea Le Bannister received the honours for Kentner's.

June 7
 Wow! Three in a row! Kentner's Dairy Bar extended their perfect game record to 3-0 as they defeated the Optimist Club 26-15. At the mound for Optimists were Karen Hannah and Tracy Osborne. Game stars were Osbourne of the Optimists and Tara Grootjen, with a grand slam for Kentners.

The homerun hit by Kelly Campbell of Elks was not enough to keep the fight alive as Elk's Lodge was overpowered by Dairy Queen 19-10. Game stars were DQ's Nicole Gledhill and Deanna Moore and Andrea Butterworth of Elk's Lodge.

SENIORS

May 29
 Remax slipped past Pictures and Presents by a one run margin and came out on top 13-12. On the mound for Remax were Susan Morey and Heather Lovegrove, while teammate Paula Laing hit in the game's only homerun. Game stars were Morey of Remax and Lisa Johnston of P and P.

June 5
 In yet another tight game, Dunlop Insurance slipped past Pictures and Presents 24-23. The game's single bag tripper was Dunlop's Jennifer Skinner. At the mound were Susan Walsh, Laura Doyle and Jennifer Skinner of Dunlop and Shari Loke and Lisa Johnston of P and P. Game stars were Doyle of Dunlop and Natalie Goldson of P and P.

JUNIORS

 Standard Products slipped past Young's Pharmacy 26-24. Slamming in homeruns were Jackie Grant (2), Lisa Earle and Erin LeBannister, all of Standard Products. Game stars were the three Standard homerun hitters and Brianne Beaumont.

In another close game, Delrex Smoke Shop over-powered the Kinnettes 30-26. Homers were hit in by Erin Snook (2), Amanda Hardcastle, Andrea Pollock, Cheryl Mastalerz, Donna Koster, Becky Coffin, and Janet Fairs, all of Delrex. Game stars were Snook, Pollock and Fairs of Delrex and Marie White of Kinnettes.

May 31

Standard Products increased their record to 2-0 when they defeated Delrex Smoke Shop 29-27. Hitting in bag trippers were Erin Snook of Delrex and Lisa Earle, Jackie Grant, Erin LeBannister (2) and Lindsay Robinson of Standard. Game stars were Standard's LeBannister, and Heather Pollock, Mandy Hardcastle and Jacqueline Bell, all of Delrex.

Young's Pharmacy passed by the Kinnettes by only one run, 29-28. Game stars were Lynn Moreland and Amanda Williams of Kinnettes and the entire Young's Pharmacy team.

June 7

Wow! There were five homers belted in by Delrex Smoke Shop, but it wasn't quite enough as they were defeated 32-31 by Young's Pharmacy. Andrea Pollock, Janet Fairs (2), and Donna Koster (2) were the Delrex homerun hitters. Game stars were Jody Hutzal of Young's and Koster, Amanda Hardcastle and Lindsay Mills of Delrex.

With 15 runs in the last inning, Standard Products ran away with a 36-27 victory. Homers were knocked in by Lisa Earle, Erin LeBannister (2), Amy Willis (2), and Andrea Weiner of Standard. Game stars were Willis and Weiner of Standard and Marie White of the Kinnettes.

Tykes stumble at start

The Acton Tyke lacrosse team stumbled at the starting blocks and suffered a 9-8 setback at the hands of Elora in a game played June 6 at the Acton Arena.

While Acton was stumbling, Elora roared out to a 6-1 first period lead then held on for the win.

The Acton Tykes rallied to cut the Elora lead to 7-4 after the second period then outscored the visitors 4-2 in the final period - but the first period lapse just proved too much to overcome.

Jason McGuire scored three goals for Acton, Ryan Wetherall had a pair, while single markers were counted by M.P. McGuire, Brandon Valente and Mathew Hall.

The Acton Tykes play host to Kitchener, 7 p.m. Wednesday night at Acton Arena, preceding the Novice Rams game against Kitchener.

In a tight-checking Acton House League Peanut Division lacrosse contest, the Mickey Mouse squad got by the Bugs Bunny crew by a 3-1 count.

April Leonard, Matt Lyons and Micheline Welte scored for the winners, while James Puff scored the lone Bugs Bunny goal.
