

Rams rock Milton

The Acton Novice Rams lacrosse team lifted it's 1990 regular season record to .500 (3-3-1) by thumping Milton 8-1, in a game played last Wednesday at Acton Arena.

Ryan Young in the Rams net was a standout, and a major contributing factor in the Leathertown team's lopsided win.

Rams led 2-0 after the first period and edged ahead 3-1 after two frames.

A five-goal Acton explosion in the third period - coupled with a tight defense that blanked Milton - gave the Rams the well-deserved win.

Kyle Artem paced the Ram shooters with three goals. He also picked up an assist.

David Lajeunesse scored twice for the Rams while singles went to Jeff Newman, Richard Raju and Chris Lee.

Mike Krause and Paul Withers had assists in the winning effort.

Last Friday and Saturday, the Rams competed in a tournament in Guelph but were eliminated from further play after losses to Hamilton and Syracuse.

The Rams lost 7-4 to Hamilton and 7-1 to Syracuse.

A four-goal Hamilton first-period outburst, to no replies from Acton, put the Halton Hills team behind the proverbial eight-ball and they just never recovered.

Acton outscored Hamilton 4-3 over the final two periods, but to no avail.

Ryan Young, Kyle Artem, Sandy Chapman and Thomas Wolfer were the Acton marksmen against Hamilton, while Artem and Jason Christopher draw assists.

In the 7-1 loss to Syracuse, a second period letdown served to scuttle Acton's hopes.

Syracuse led 1-0 after the first period and then extended the lead to 4-1 after two periods.

In the third period, Syracuse outscored Acton 3-1, to sew up the win.

Richard Raju scored the lone Acton goal with Sandy Chapman and Nathan Crowe drawing assists.

The Acton Rams swing back into action tonight (Wednesday) with home game, 8 p.m. at Acton Arena against Brantford.

The Acton Tykes' game precedes the Novice game, 7 p.m., at Acton Arena with Brantford again providing the opposition.

Bowling for Champs

Les Mellish shows proper form as he prepares to bowl, while Aliza Taynor of Streetsville looks on with approval during games last Saturday at the Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club located on Edith Street. The Georgetown Lawn Bowling Club will be hosting the 4th Annual Canada Bowls Challenge Tournament Saturday and local organizations and service clubs are invited to participate. All proceeds and donations will be forwarded to the CHAMP program of the War Amps of Canada which provides assistance to help child amputees and their families meet the challenges of amputation. Games start 10 a.m. at the club facility on Edith Street and the entry fee is $5 per player. Lunch will be served. (Herald photo)

GBA Tykes House League

A's thump Blue Jays

A's 16, Blue Jays 7
The official opening of the GBA Tyke House League got off to a good start as the A's beat the Blue Jay 15-7.

A great play by Brendan Alexa as he had a grand slam home run and 4 RBI's. Jason Hicks and Mike Kitchen also contributed with 2 base hits each. John Howell also had a good play as he made a great throw and the runner was out while stealing.

For the Blue Jays, Kris Noonan and Nathan Martin both had two base hits and Nathan Martin and Jean Hardcastle contributed with one RBI each. Sean Hardcastle is also credited with his good throw.

Expos 4, Tigers 3
Sam Southworth played exceptionally well for the Expos as he had a grand slam home run. He also had great pitching ability that helped the Expos defeat the Tigers.

For the Tigers, they had a tremendous comeback when they were losing 4-1. Andrew Wright had 3 base hits while Paul Farmer made a great play with 2 base hits when the bases were loaded and made the team comeback with 3 runs.

Outstanding plays also go to Brent McClung for his great pitching and also to Brian Normore.

Royals 8, Dodgers 5

For the Royals, Jason Vanmeizel had an outstanding play as he caught a fly ball, then tagged the runner on third base - a great double play for Jason.

Also good work by Greg McCullough as he had 2 base hits and David Pegg with 3 base hits. Darren Mansfield made a great fly ball catch as he caught the line drive down first.

Adam Szlachta also made a great catch at third base.

For the Dodgers, Ken Thompson played extremely well as he had two base hits and also 3 RBI's. Credit also goes to Mark Fedschyn and Adam Goddard for 3 base hits. Mark Fedschyn also made a great fly ball catch.

Argh! He missed

Chris Kirk, of the Georgetown Baseball Association Squirt House League Pirates, throws up his arms in frustration as a teammate strikes out. Pirates coach, Clay Downes, is a little more stoic about the incident, while umpire, Michael Richardson, pretends he didn't notice. GBA House League games are played weeknights at the Fairgrounds baseball diamonds. (Herald photo)
