

Free concerts

OPUS 152, a suite of five musical pieces, and other compositions for keyboard and tape by Robert Daigneault will be performed at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre Gallery on Saturday, June 23 (today) at 11 a.m., 2 p.m. and 4 p.m. by Valerie Nichol.

The numbers performed include Toy Horse, Little Dancer, Peace Dove, Circus and Pioneer.

Admission is free. The concerts are sponsored by the Friends of the Halton Hills Libraries.

Art exhibit

An exhibition of sculptures by Andreas Drenters officially opened at the Gallery of the Halton Hills Library and Cultural Centre in Georgetown on Wednesday.

The gallery is located at 9 Church Street.

The exhibition runs from June 20 to July 28.

Correction

A story which appeared in the Norval News on Page 20 of the Herald on June 20, concerning the death of Huttonville resident Lynda Shaw, stated a suspect had been found. In fact, no suspect has been found.

The Herald regrets the error.

British Club

Club fosters community pride

July 3 - Social Nite: This month's guest speaker will be Mike Pembry, editor of Country Magazine. All club members, both past and present, as well as anyone wishing to find out more about our organization, are encouraged to drop in, listen to our guest's presentation and then relax with some refreshment, meet some of the present members and find out more about our future plans.

The goal of the Halton Hills British/Canadian Club is to provide various social activities as well as foster a strong sense of community pride, through involvement, among the members.

Social nights are held on the first Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the Copper Kettle Pub, Glen Williams.

UPCOMING EVENTS:

Pool Party/Picnic: (members only) July 21. For additional information call 846-6215.

Pub Nite: Date and location to be announced.

Garage Sale: September - watch for further details. Donations and suggestions welcomed.

Car Rally: (not a race), Sept. 30.

Georgetown Fall Fair booth.

Watch this paper for future events and further guest speakers planned by The Halton Hills British/Canadian Club, or call 846-6215 or 877-3292 for more details.

A new spirit of giving

RMC Grad

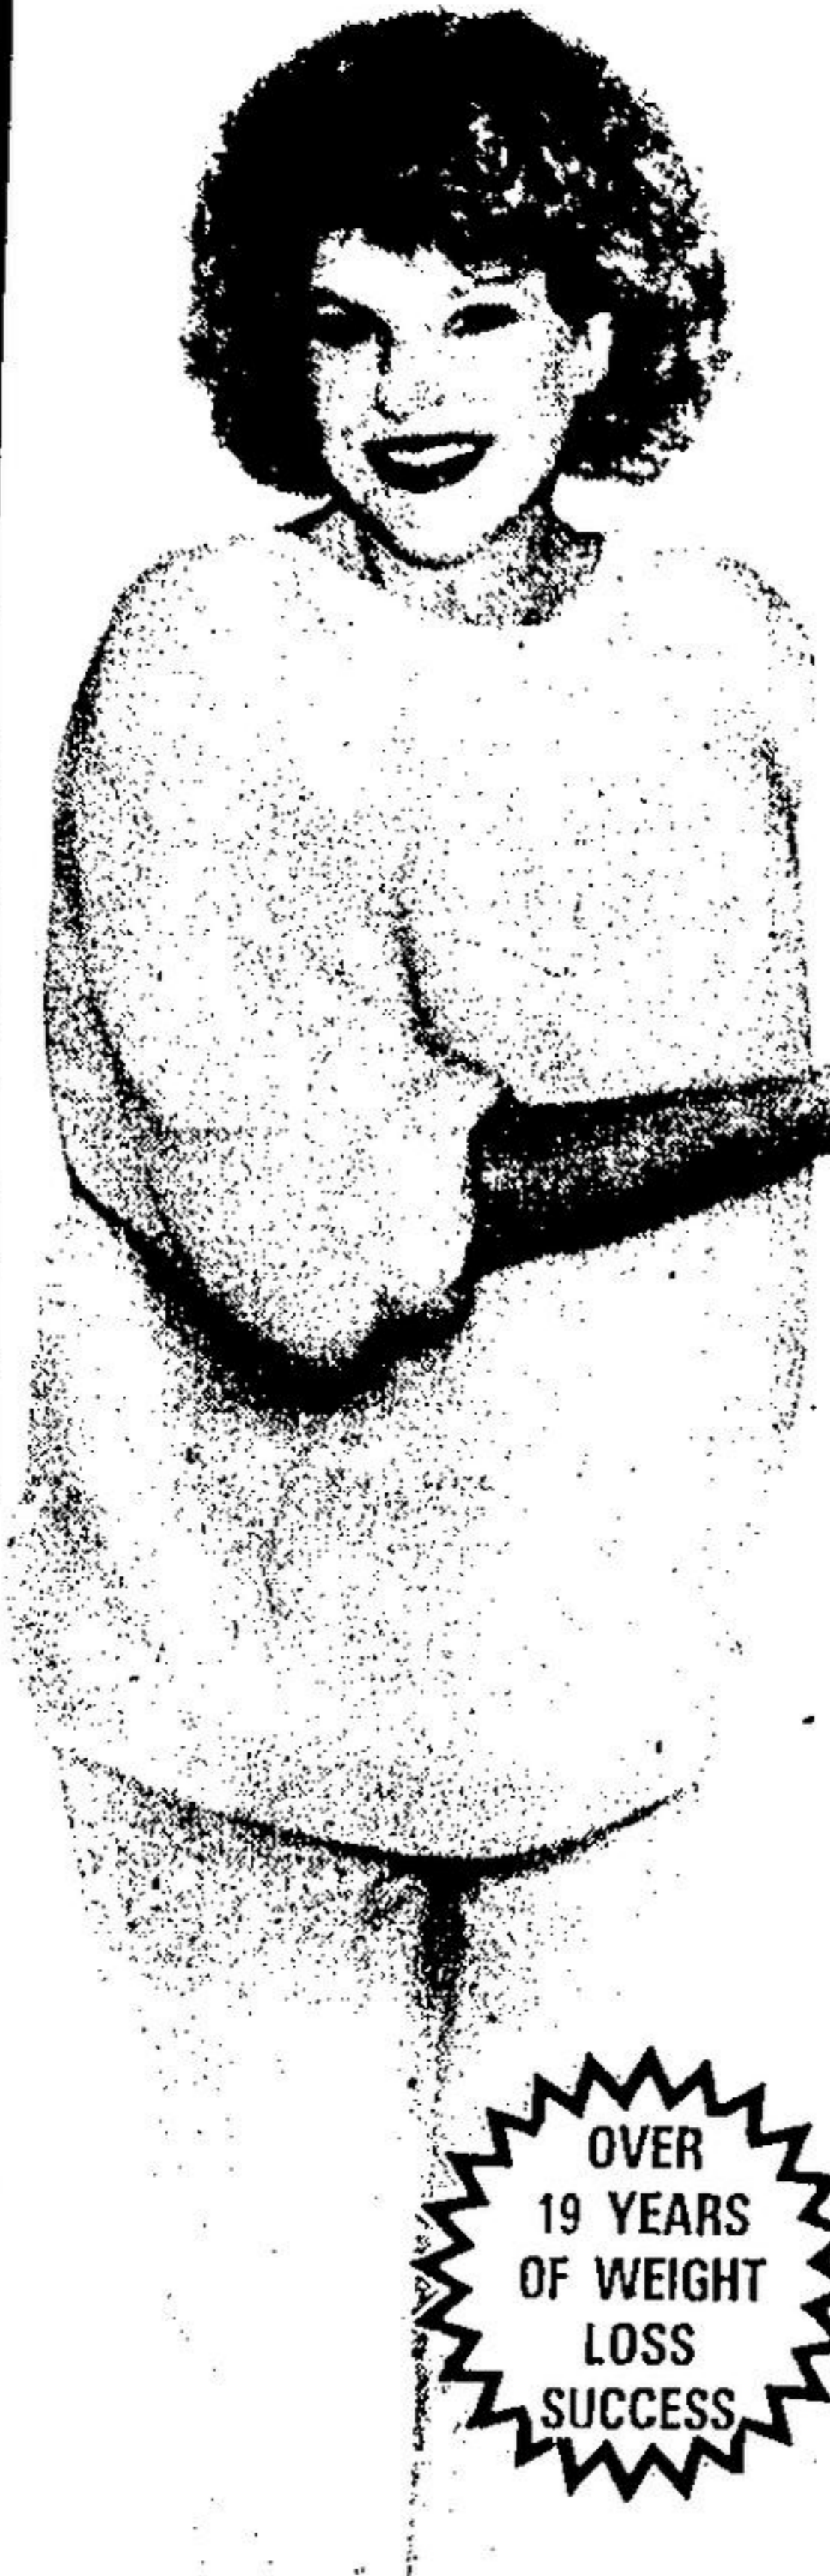

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice E. Staley of R.R. 1, Acton, are proud to announce the graduation of their daughter Helen Irene, from the Royal Military College of Canada, Kingston, Ontario, during the graduation ceremony held on May 19 in Kingston. Helen received a bachelor of engineering degree in mechanical engineering and a commission in the Canadian Forces. The degree was conferred by E.R.A. Murray, Commandant of the Royal Military College of Canada. Second Lieutenant Helen Irene Staley will serve as an aerospace engineering officer in the Canadian Forces, and is now posted to the Aerospace Engineering Test Establishment, Cold Lake, Alberta. Prior to joining R.M.C., Helen attended Acton High School and graduated from Grade 13 in June, 1986.

Graduate

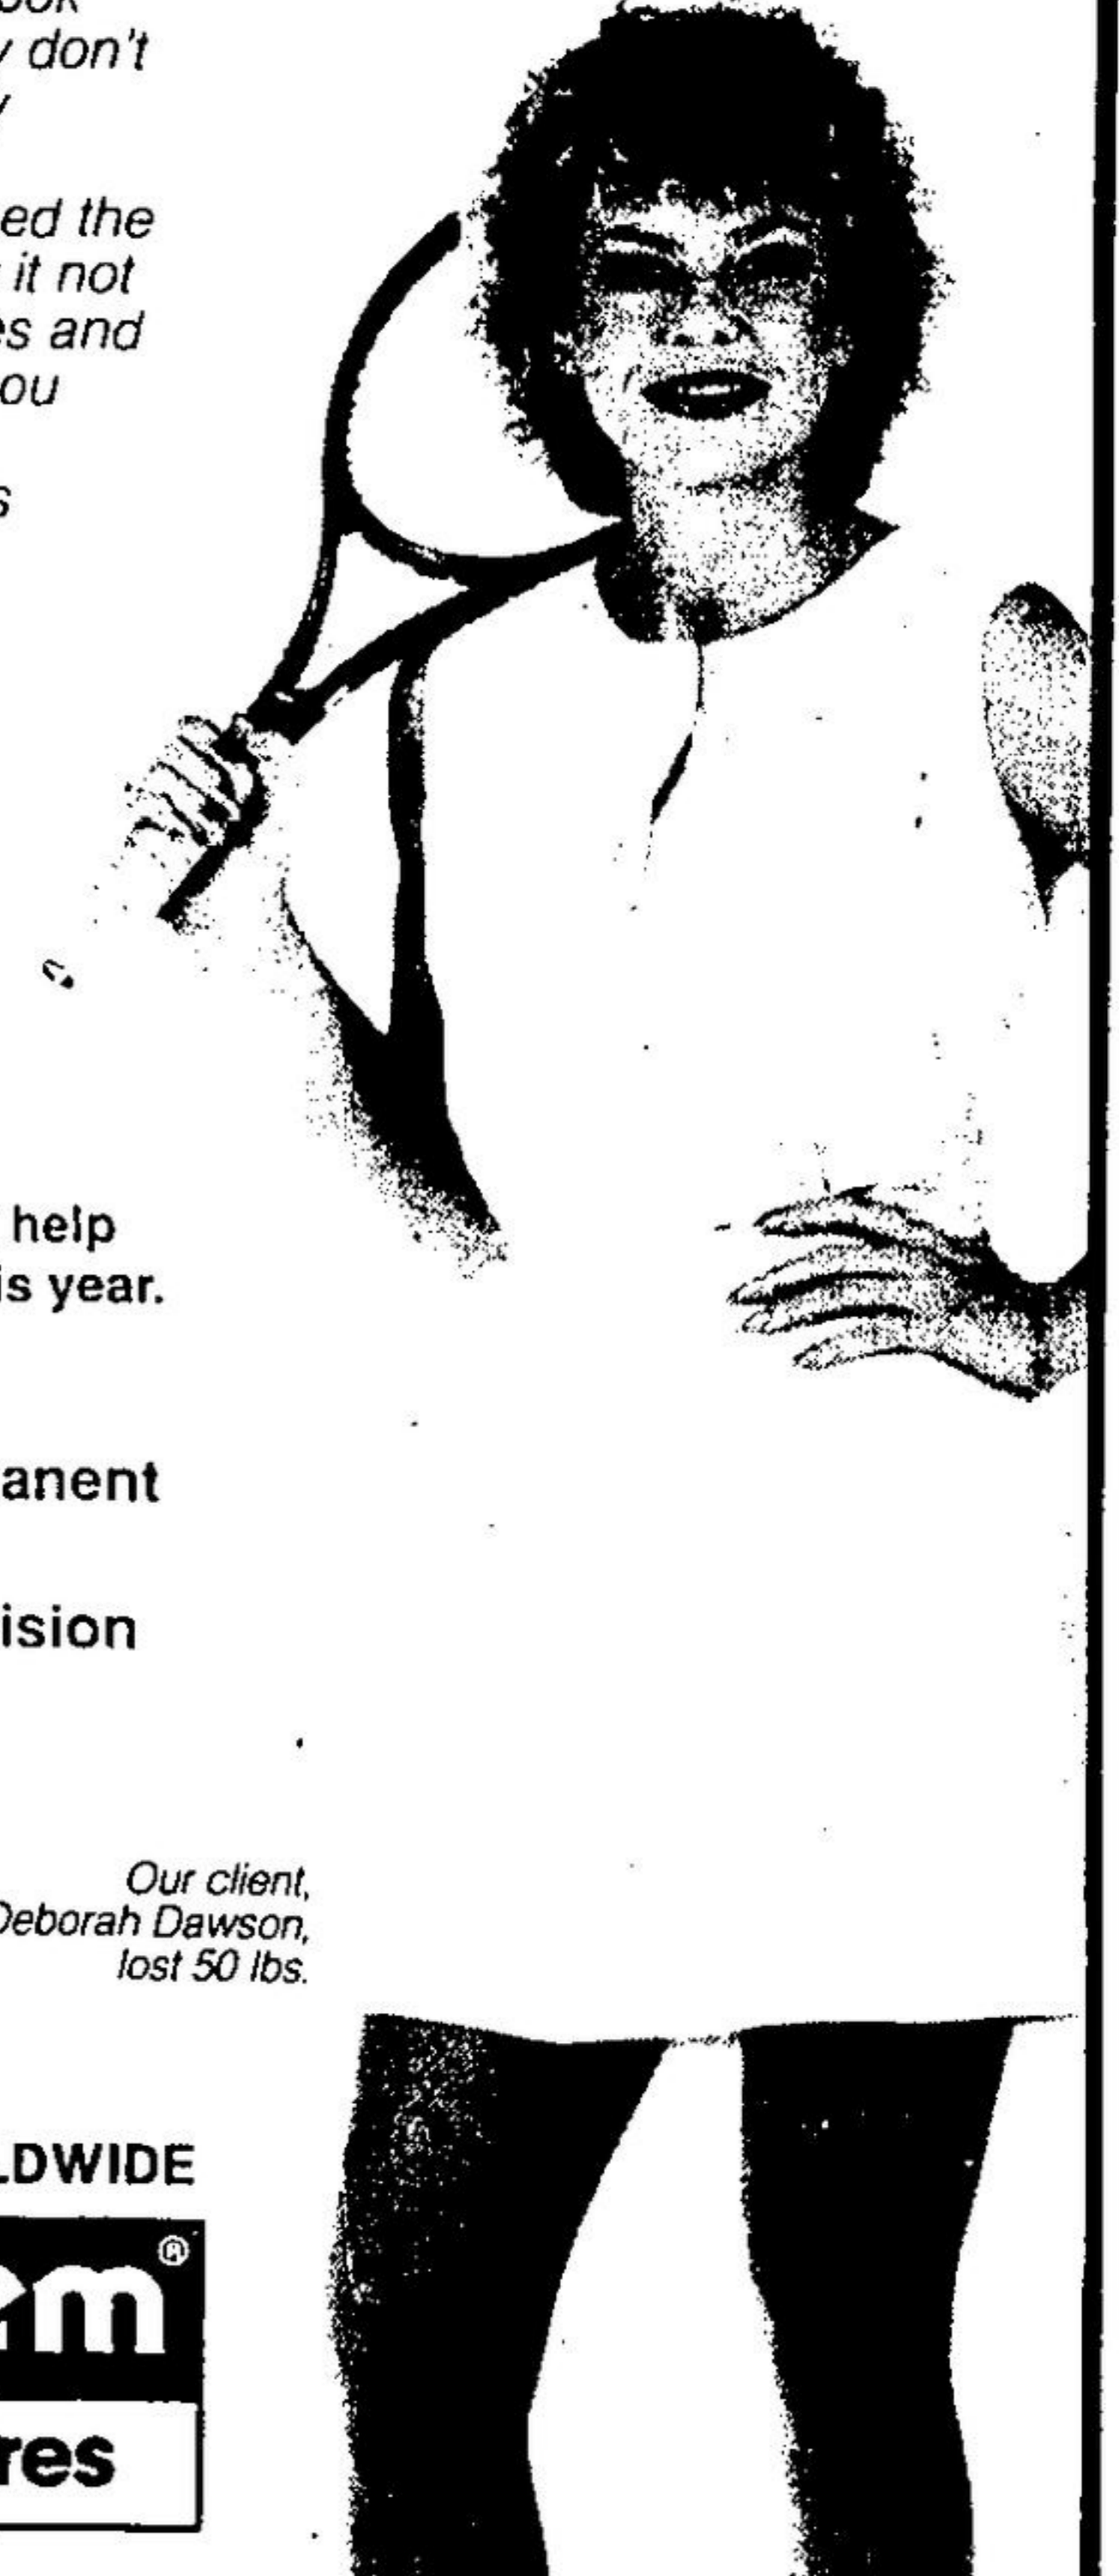

Andrew and Barbara Murray are proud to announce the graduation of their daughter, Leanne, from Concordia University, Montreal, Quebec. Leanne received her bachelor of arts degree with a major in journalism. Convocation ceremonies took place June 11. Place des Arts, Montreal. Leanne is now a full-time reporter at a major Montreal newspaper.

"With Nutri/System, I said goodbye to 50 lbs. forever."

"Everybody tells me how great I look since I lost the weight. What they don't realize is that I've maintained my weight loss for 7 months now. You see, at Nutri/System, I learned the importance of being active. How it not only helps you burn extra calories and lose weight faster, it also helps you maintain your weight loss. This means that my tennis outfits may change, but they'll always be the same size."
