Re/Max romps

By DEE DEE HAYNES
Herald Special
SENIORS

Re/Max overpowered Dunlop Insurance as they defeated them 15-12 on June 12. Going four for four was Kelly Puckering of Dunlop. Game stars were Dunlop's Susan Walsh and Re/Max's Heather Lovegrove.

• Coaches - please fill in first and last names on the scoresheet (especially Re/Max!).

INTERMEDIATE

Wow!! The league's first out-of-the-park homerun was knocked in by Elk's Lodge's Erin Steringa on June 14. The ball cleared the senior citizen's diamond fence and hit a parked car (oops, sorry).

But, unfortunately, Steringa and teammate Deana Moore's home runs were not enough as they fell to the mighty Kentner's Catering 30-20. This extends Kentner's record to 4-0-0. Wanda, Carrie and Sheri helped the fight as they knocked in a homer each for Kentner's.

Andrea Le Bannister pitched a superb game for Dairy Queen as she came away with 6 strikeouts against the Optimists, but unfortunately it wasn't quite enough and Optimist won the game 12-6.

Lindsay Holmes and Tracy Green knocked in homers for the Optimists, while Le Bannister knocked in the sole bag tripper for DQ. Game stars were LeBannister and Holmes.

JUNIORS

There were two very close games in our junior league, with the first game seeing the Kinnettes take the one run advantage over Delrex Smoke Shop 31-30. Jennifer Doyle and Danielle King were named game stars for Kinnettes and Robin Snelling, Angela Connell and Jessica Romp were for Delrex.

The second game was even closer as Standard Products and Young's IDA Pharmacy tied at 31 runs. Smashing in homers for Standard were Lisa Lawrence (2), Katherine Leonard (2), and Lisa Earle. Game stars were Brooke Duval of Youngs and the three homerun hitters for Standard.

Seniors poster winner

BILL MAYNARD, of Georgetown, accepts congratulations from National Bank representative Denine Regnier, while Ontario Senior Games chairman, Roy Hull, looks on approvingly at a special ceremony in Toronto recently during Senior Centre Day festivities. Mr. Maynard also received a cheque for $200 for placing second in the official Ontario

Senior Games/National Bank poster contest. Representatives from the Older Adult Centre's Association of Ontario, the Ministry of Tourism and the National Bank of Canada were judges for the competition. First place in the contest went to Mrs. Betty Joiner of St. Thomas, while Stan Norris of Sarina placed third. (Photo submitted)
