This dramatic three bedroom home features warm brick exterior with traditional quoining in combination with easy maintenance siding. The entrance foyer creates a warm welcome for all guests. Vaulted ceiling heightens spaciousness in the sunken living room. Formal dinners are well received in the bay windows dining room. The quiet den, with private three-piece bathroom, could conveniently double as a guest room. Pocket doors provide an excellent division between family recreation area and formal living space. A large kitchen offers convenience and luxury at every turn, from an island cook-top to ample cabinet space. The sunny breakfast nook opens onto a covered porch - perfect for a summer brunch. Dual access staircase from kitchen and foyer leads up to a second floor bridge that overlooks both the family room and foyer below. The master bedroom boasts a large walk-in closet and intimate sitting area bathed in natural light. The ensuite offers a double vanity, corner shower and raised whirlpool tub. The two additional bedrooms, one with built-in desk and the other with full wall closet, share a three-piece bathroom. This family home has 2861 square feet of finished floor space.
